Sean Johnson

~~Dear~~

Sean,

You've been a very good friend to me this year, when I needed help or comfort, you were there.

You've always been nice to me. Most of the students in this school are snobs but not you; you always have a nice attitude toward people, I like that. I hope you have a nice graduation & a nice summer. Good luck in the future. I know you'll do good, especially w/ school. I know you'll do good luck w/ the girls, & stay the way you are. (Many happy returns)

THE L.W.C. DEFENDER:

A STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE IN SOUTH FLORIDA

The majestic L.W.C. Defender is truly a legend in her own time. With a staff of over 35 members, this ship is indeed built for luxury cruising. And, with over 25 years of navigational experience, the staff promises you a cruise you'll never forget.

Our superb educational quality is available on a full one-year cruise based on the Greater Lake Worth area. Spend your year on the Defender discovering the many possibilities it has to offer you. Explore the wonders of science and the studies of ocean life. Marvel at the mysteries of the natural laws of physics. Enjoy the informative lectures given daily, but don't forget that a cruise is meant to be fun!

You'll find life aboard the L.W.C. Defender a never-ending delight, accented by impeccable service. That's why long before your trip is over, you'll discover why we say, on a L.W.C. Defender cruise, something very pleasant happens along the way.

PREPARE TO SURRENDER TO THE GOOD LIFE ON THE DEFENDER WITH ALL
IT HAS TO OFFER!

There is so much to do and see! From beginning to end, you're guaranteed to have the most memorable year ever!

If you're feeling energetic, participate in one of our many sports teams or raise ship spirit by cheerleading. There are always games and contests for fun and prizes, like Spirit Week, for example.

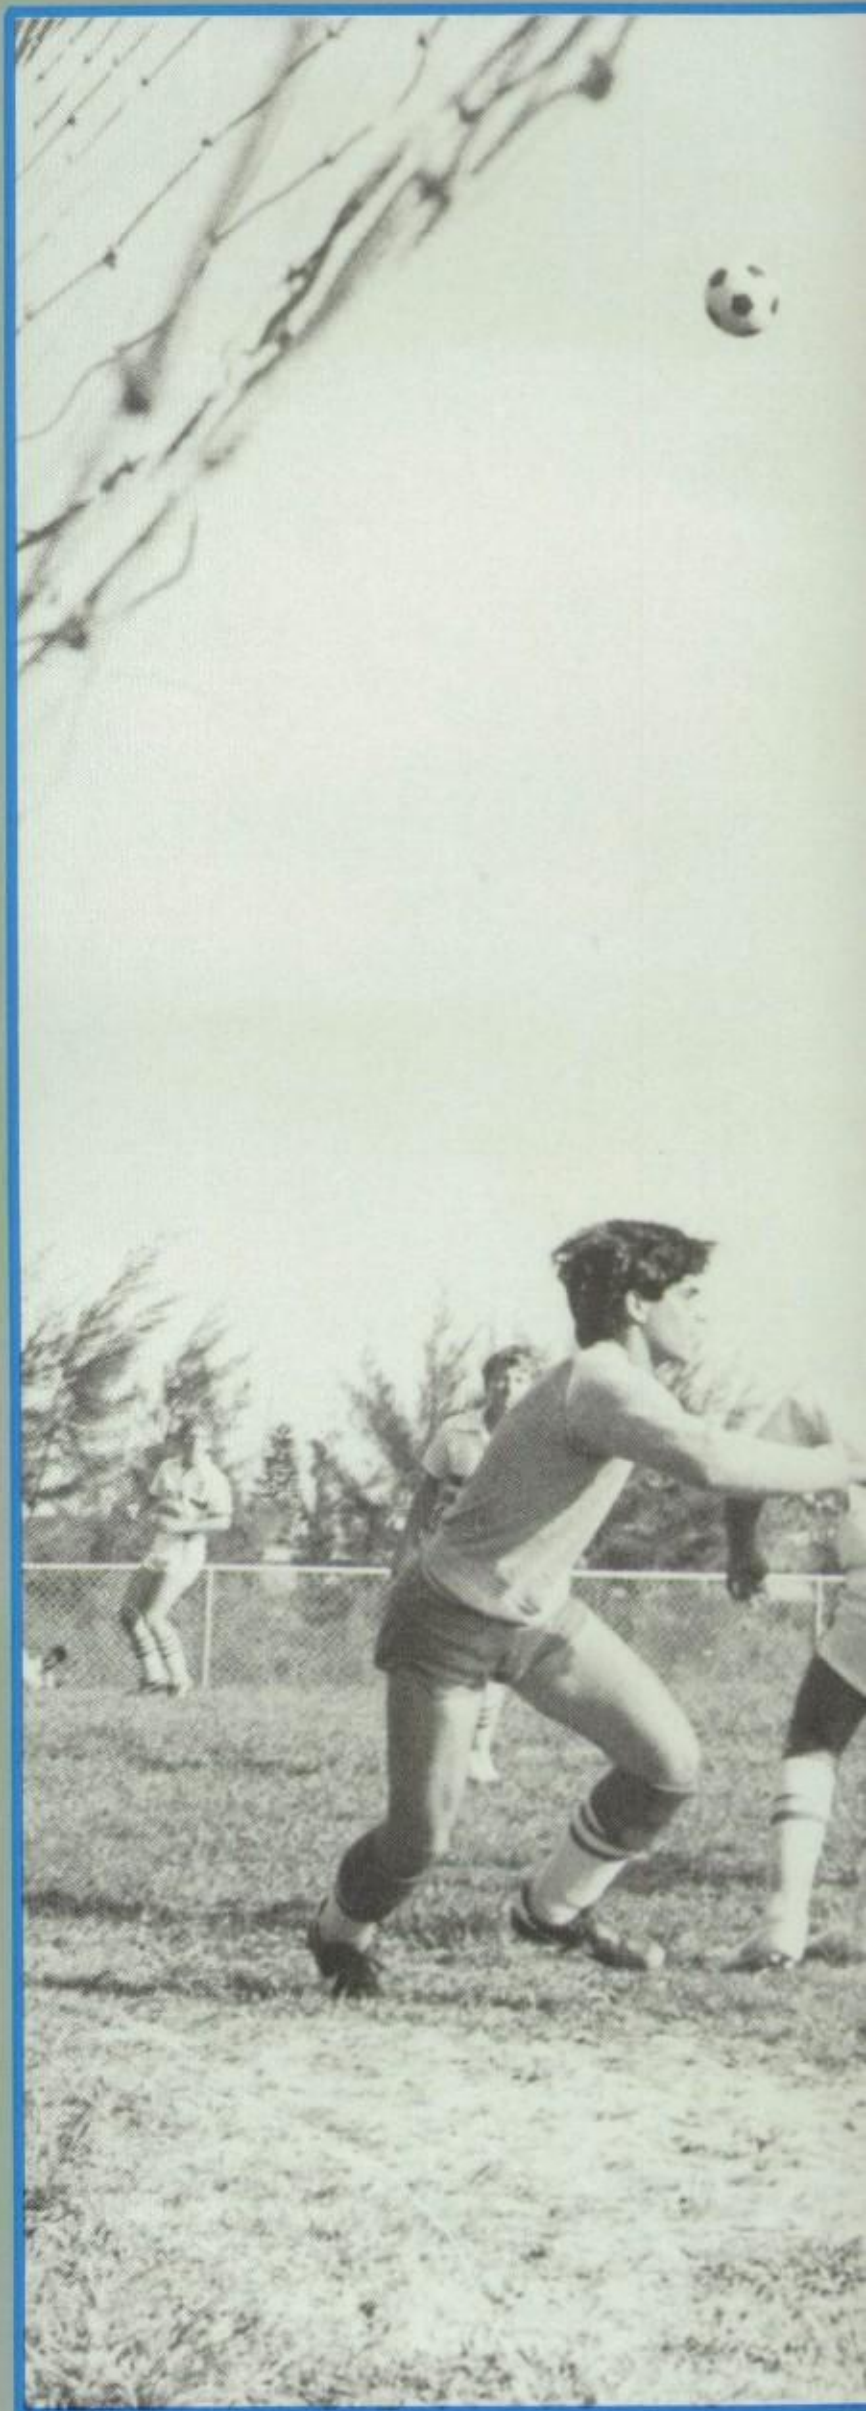

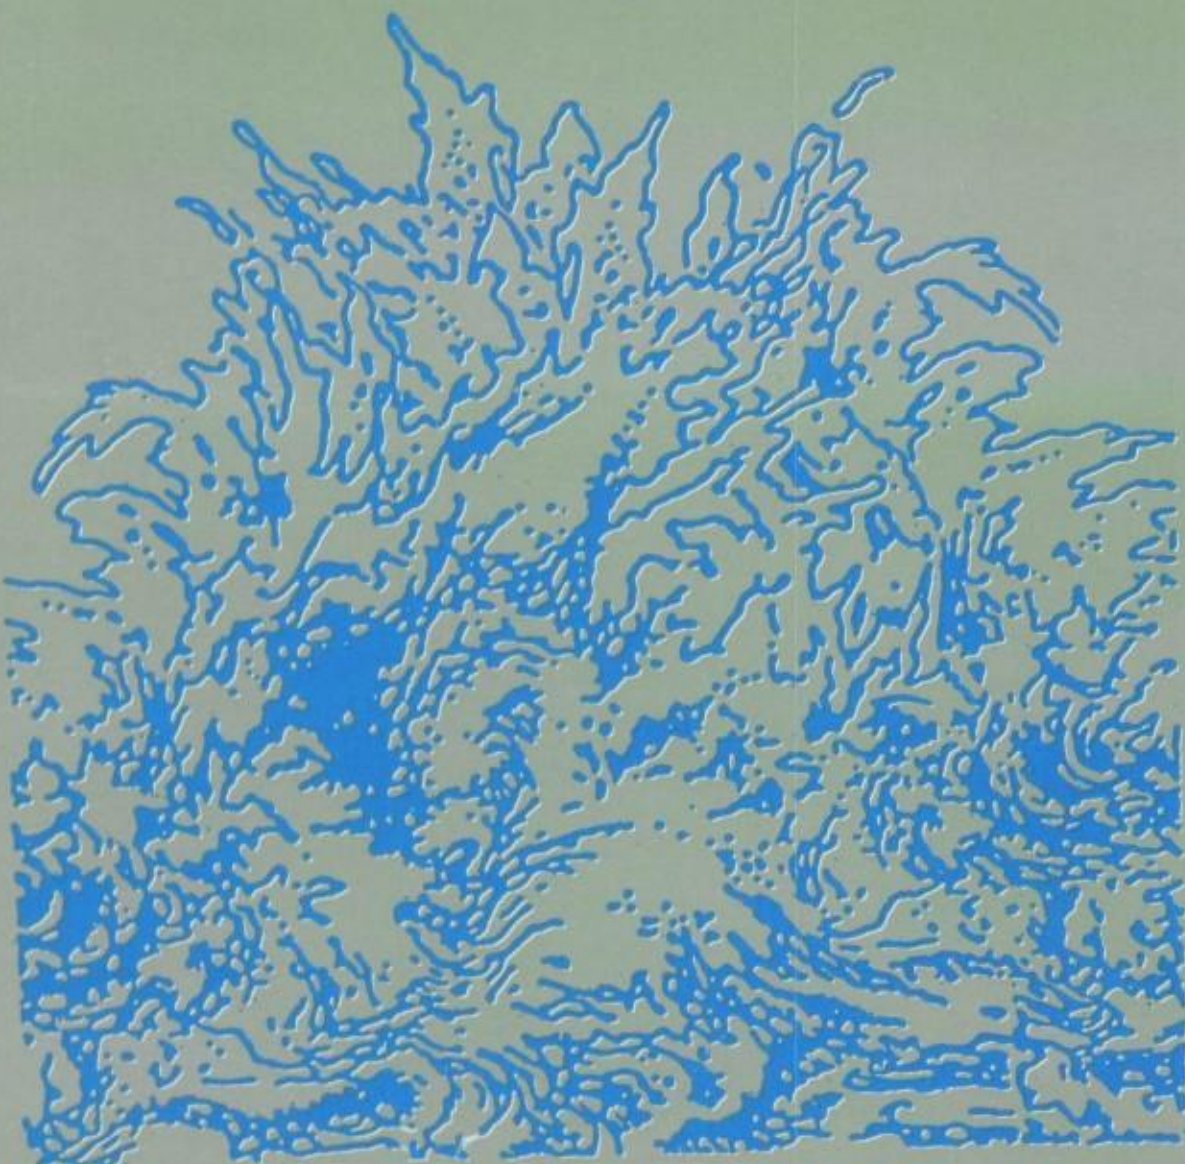

Indoors, you can try your hand at making music with the band, singing a song with the choir, "strutting your stuff" on stage with the drama club, or improving your leadership skills by getting involved in student council. The variety of activities offered aboard the Defender is as boundless as your own energy!

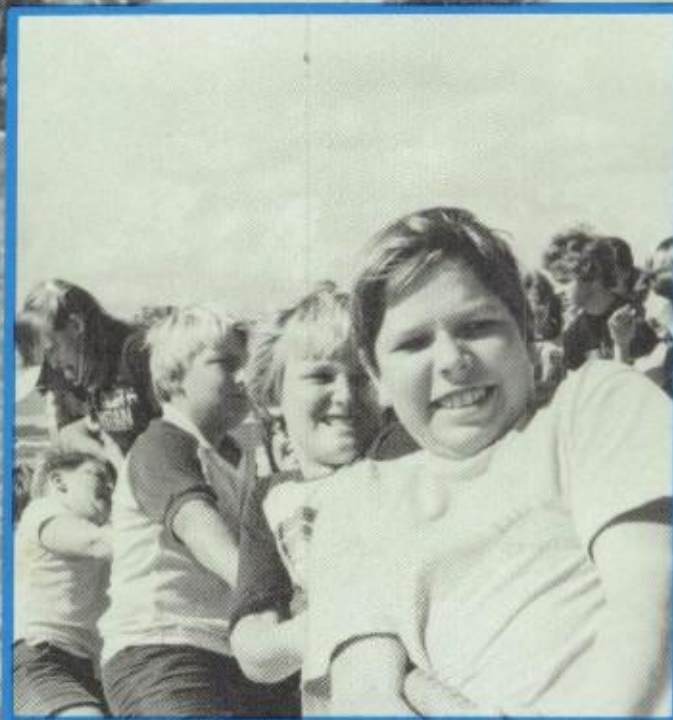

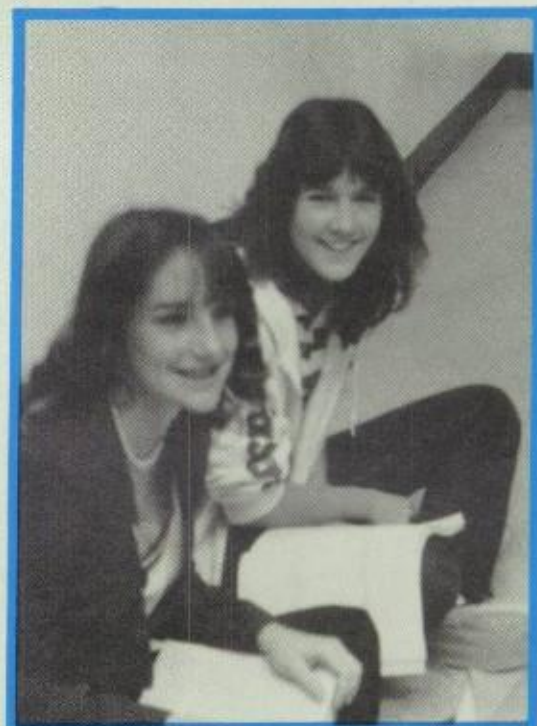

*SAIL ON THE L.W.C.
DEFENDER, THE
FRIENDLIEST SHIP
IN FLORIDA*

There's a feeling of friendship that embraces you the moment you board the Defender — a warm-hearted camaraderie that brings people back year after year. New friends become old friends and everyone gets into the spirit. Let us take you aboard the Defender and show you everything we have to offer. Get ready for the experience of a lifetime!

Play Deck (lower level)

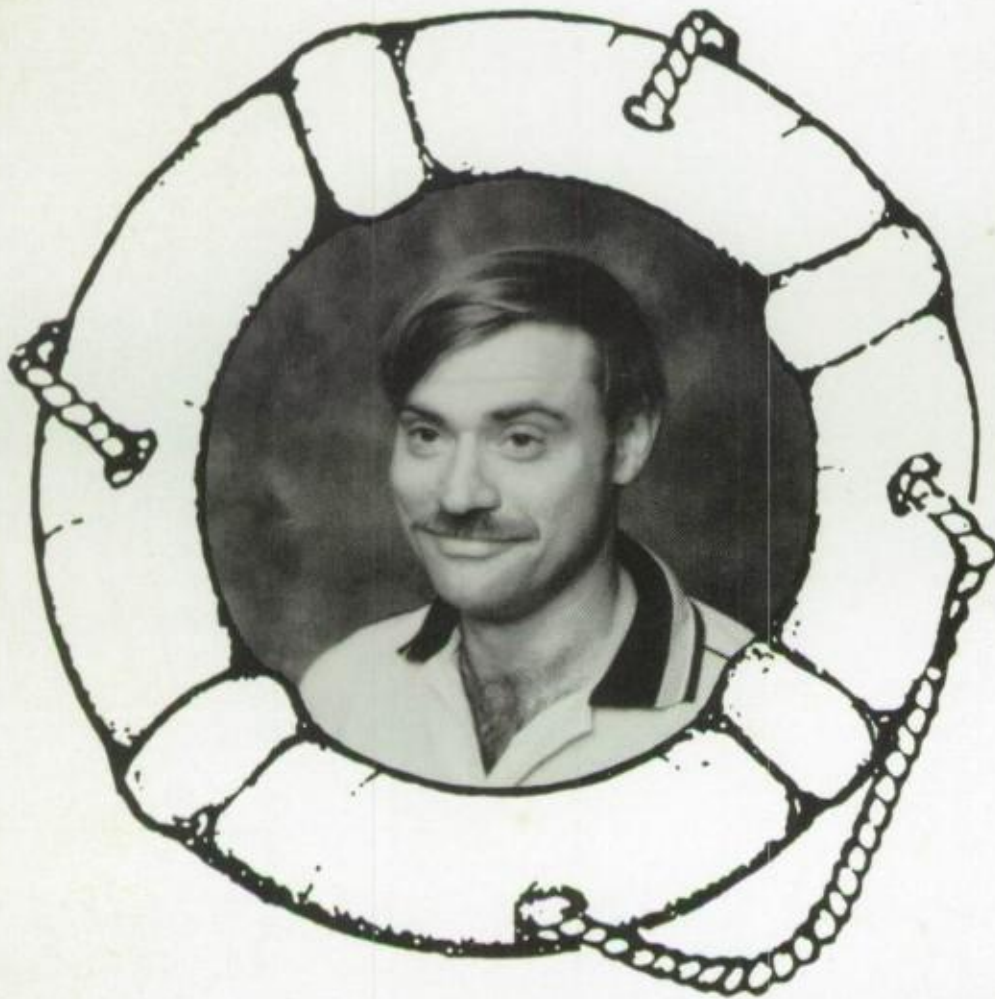

Captains, Crew, And Helpers

Reliable, competent, able: Meet our captains

Larry Kooi is the captain aboard the L.W.C. Defender. He maintains order over all decks, especially the Carnival and Festivity decks. As captain, he superbly demonstrates his leadership ability. Remember, the door to his office is always open to passengers and crew.

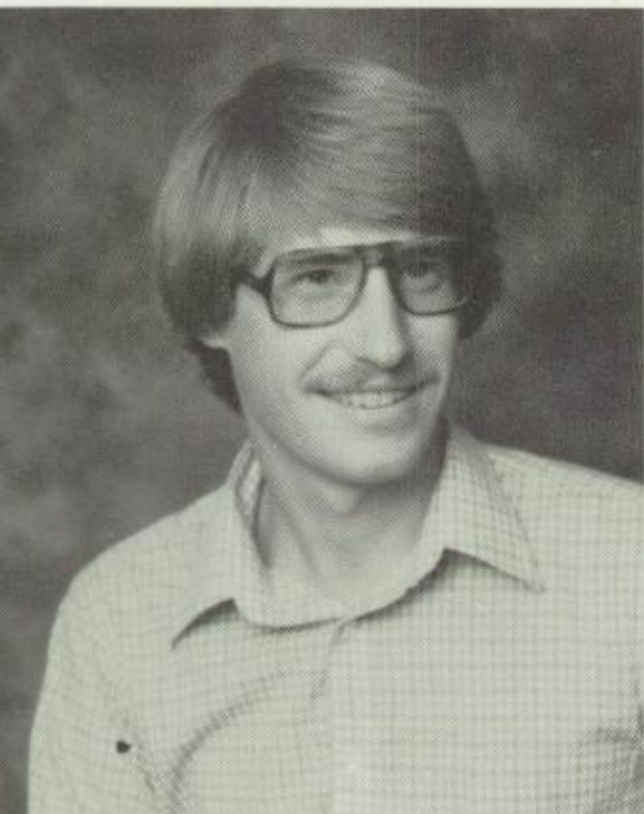

Mel Persenaire holds two vital jobs on our cruise ship. As head of the shore patrol, he searches out anyone and everyone making a disturbance or disobeying the ship's rules, and as navigator, he tries to steer those wrong-doers back to reality.

First mate Ted Van Voorthijssen displays his leadership qualities to all passengers and crew on the two play decks of the L.W.C. Defender.

Our crew is here to make your cruise enjoyable

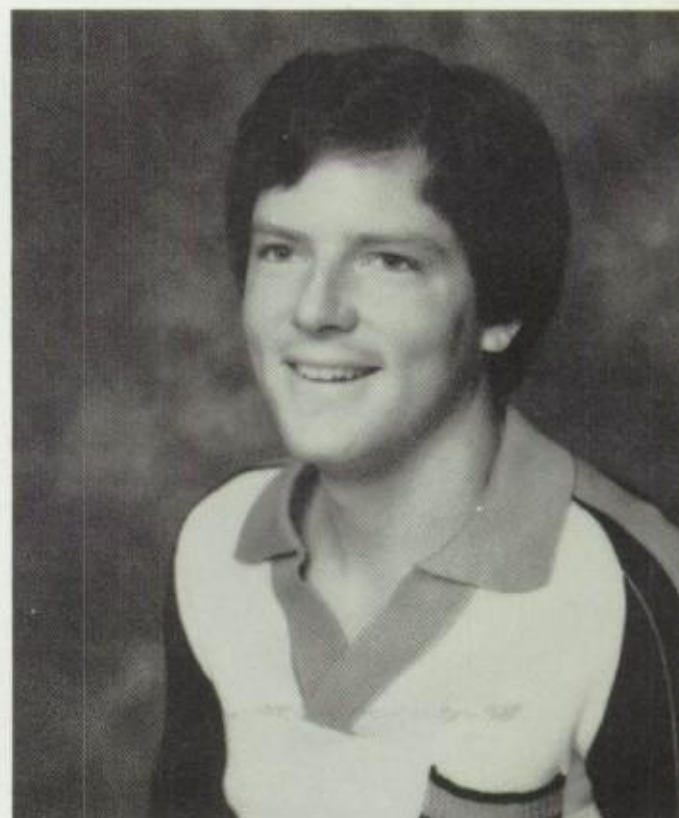

John Andringa is in charge of scuba rentals on the L.W.C. Defender. He is willing to assist you in your under water expeditions and show you the fascinating world of aquatic life.

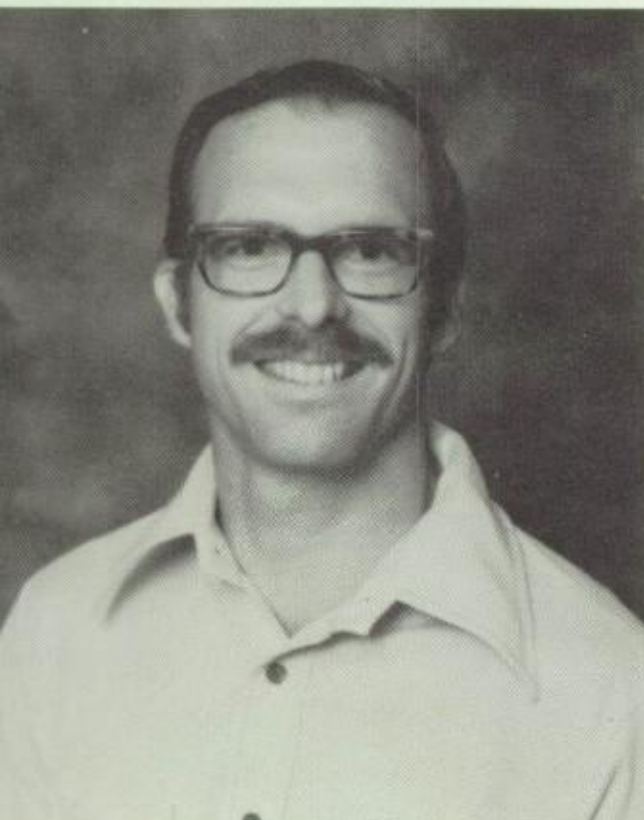

Linda Boot serves as the entertainment director aboard the L.W.C. Defender. She is very capable in charge of most of the musical entertainment heard during your L.W.C. cruise.

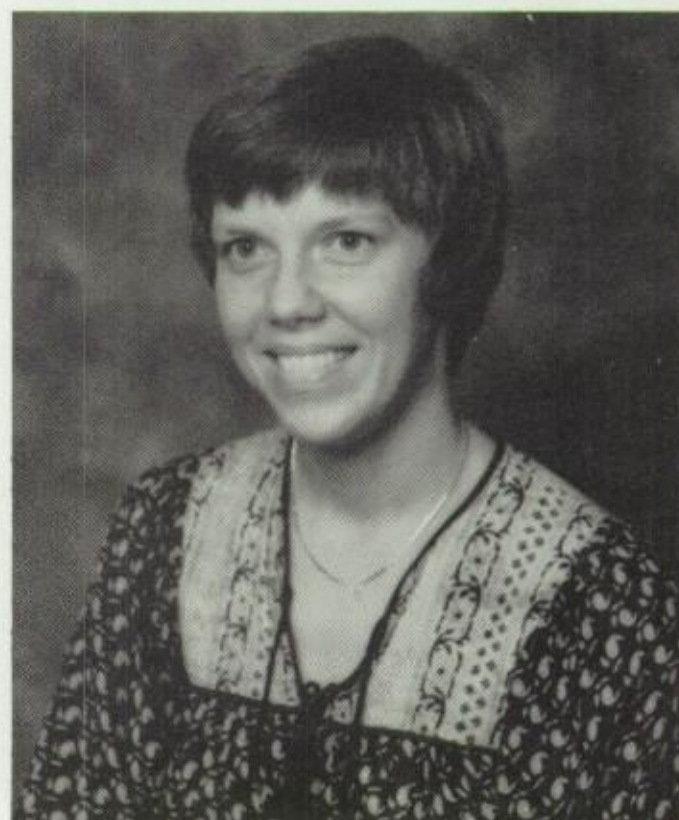

Jean Bosman, the ship's librarian, is always present to lend books to those passengers who enjoy reading on the upper decks.

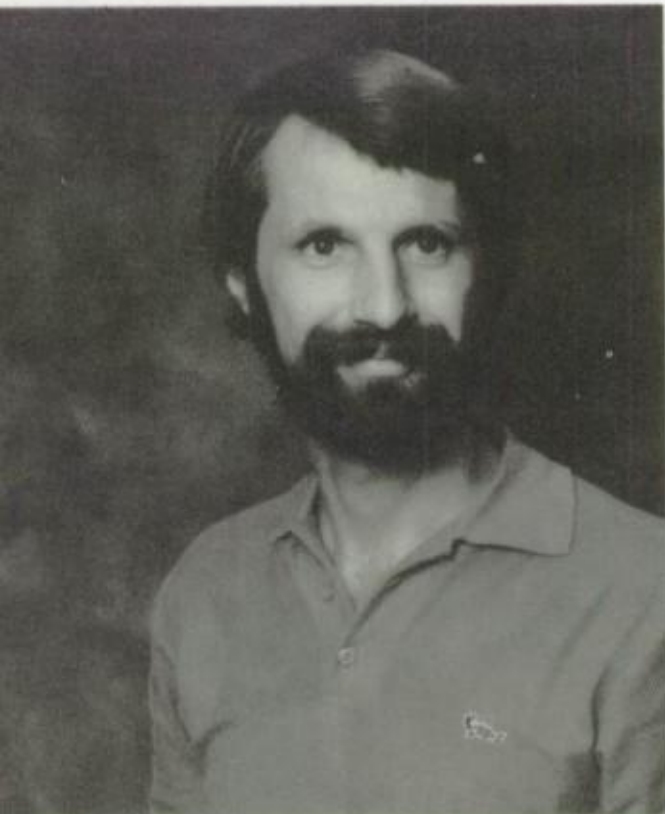

Bob DeGroot is the athletic director aboard the L.W.C. Defender. He can be found leading groups of passengers in calisthenics on the upper decks.

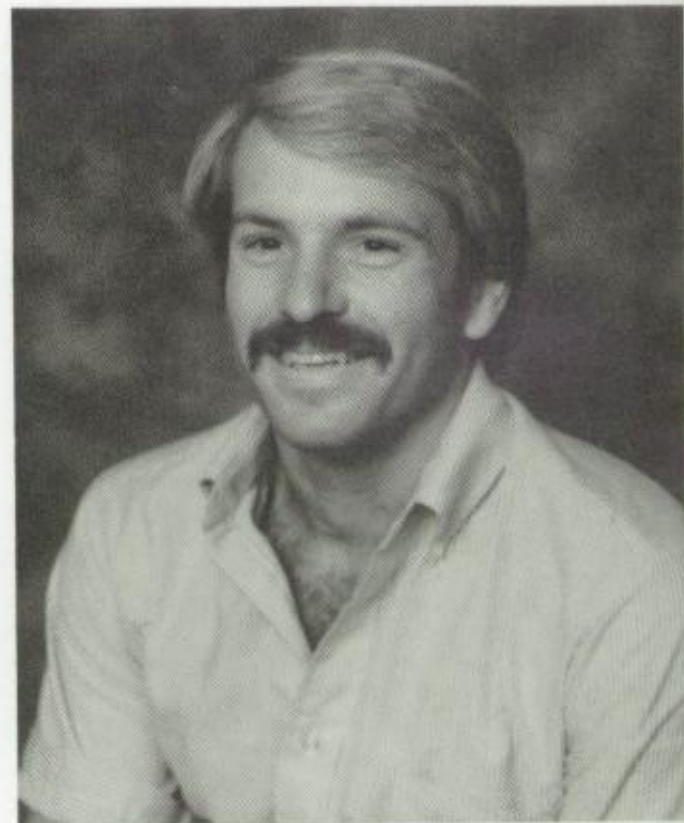

Wayne DeYoung is our ship's chaplain. He is in charge of planning meaningful and inspirational chapel services every Wednesday.

Mary Greydanus is very helpful to the passengers aboard the L.W.C. Defender. She helps all those who wish to write to friends and family who are not sailing with them and shows them the proper form for their letters and the proper usage of words.

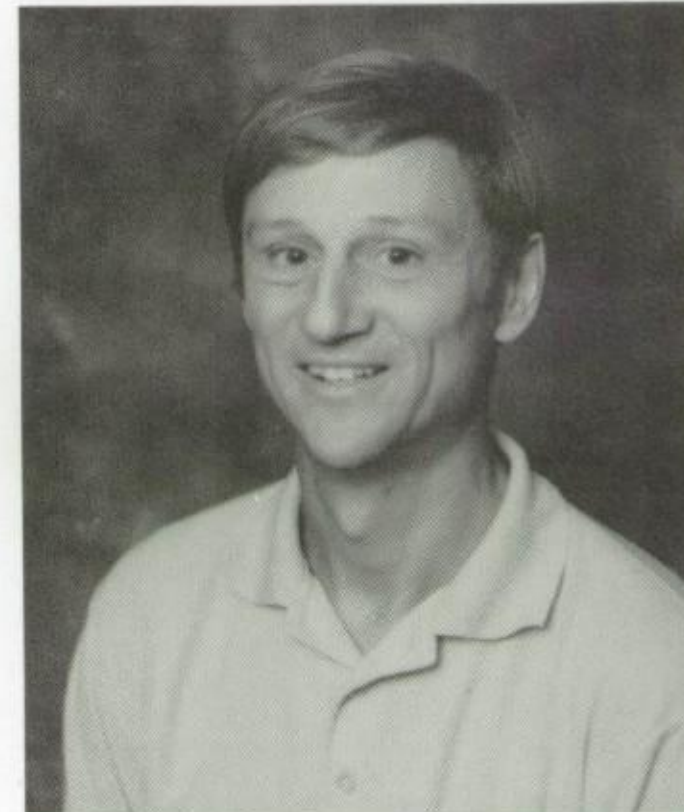

Stuart Greydanus is our ship's expert on vectors. He keeps us on course by taking into account the speed and direction of the ocean's currents and adjusting the speed and direction of the ship accordingly.

Dick Hagedorn is in charge of health and fitness on our ship. He leads aerobic exercise classes and is trained in first aid just in case the workout is too strenuous.

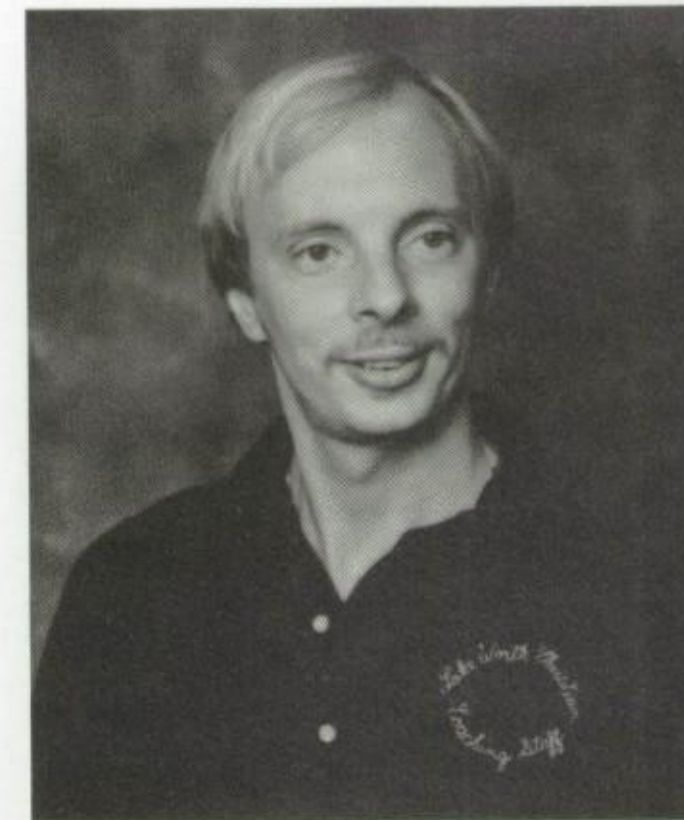

Anne Hofman is our customs officer aboard the L.W.C. Defender. She can inform our passengers about the many laws which restrict the importing and exporting of goods.

Jack Hoogendoorn is our ship's cruise director. He is in charge of making sure that all passengers are in their proper places and is always willing to help lost passengers decide their future paths.

Janet Howell is in charge of public relations aboard the L.W.C. Defender. The Mirror, our ship's news bulletin, informs all of those aboard of the many, various activities which happen during our cruise.

Ron Kooy keeps our passengers up to date on the current events around the world.

Marie Meltzer es la persona que puede ayudar todas las personas que necesitan hablar con las personas que hablan Español. Ella habla la lengua y quiere enseñar las personas que desean aprender.

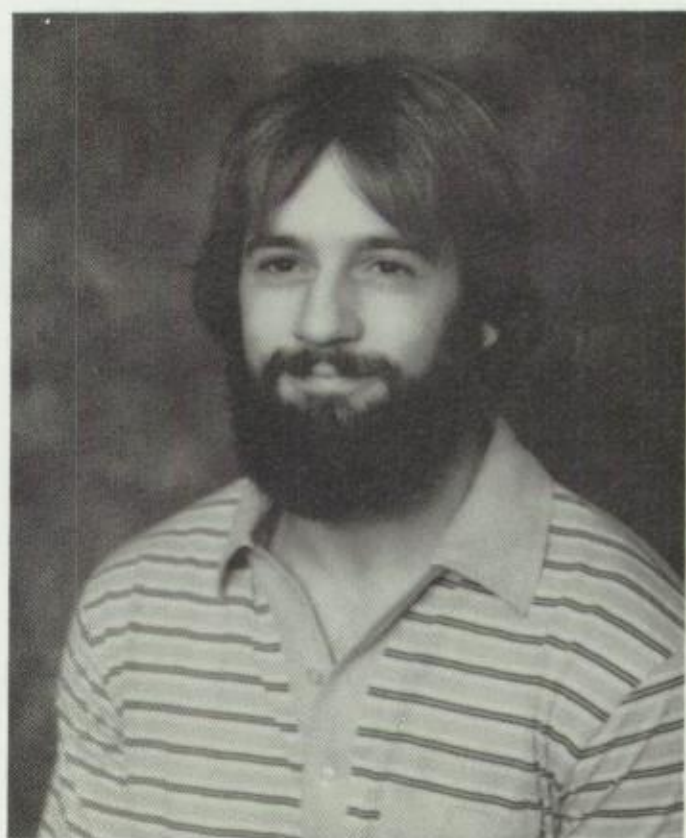

Teresa Poppema is our expert on ocean life and is always willing to answer any questions you may have about marine life in the various areas you might see during your cruise.

Jim Rozendal leads land tours of ruins and historical sites we will visit during each L.W.C. cruise.

Dave Van Popering manages the coffee shop aboard the L.W.C. Defender. Be sure to get to the coffee shop when it first opens, though, or there might not be any coffee left for the passengers.

Gary Welton is our ship's shrink. He can help passengers analyze their dreams, nightmares, feelings, and actions and find out their true meanings and motivations.

The crew aboard the L.W.C. Defender is probably one of the most dedicated in all of South Florida. Each member strives for excellence in his or her field and is willing to aid passengers in any area which is necessary.

Our helpers perform numerous behind-the-scene duties

Nell Homan is in charge of communications on our ship. This vital job demands the ability to act as a mediator between the captains, crew, and passengers.

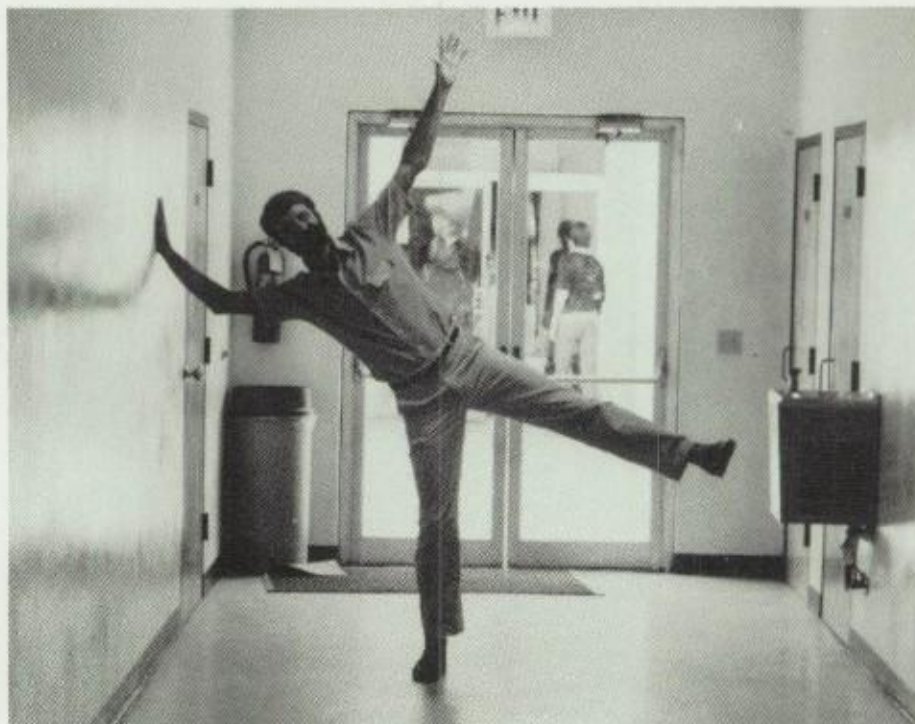

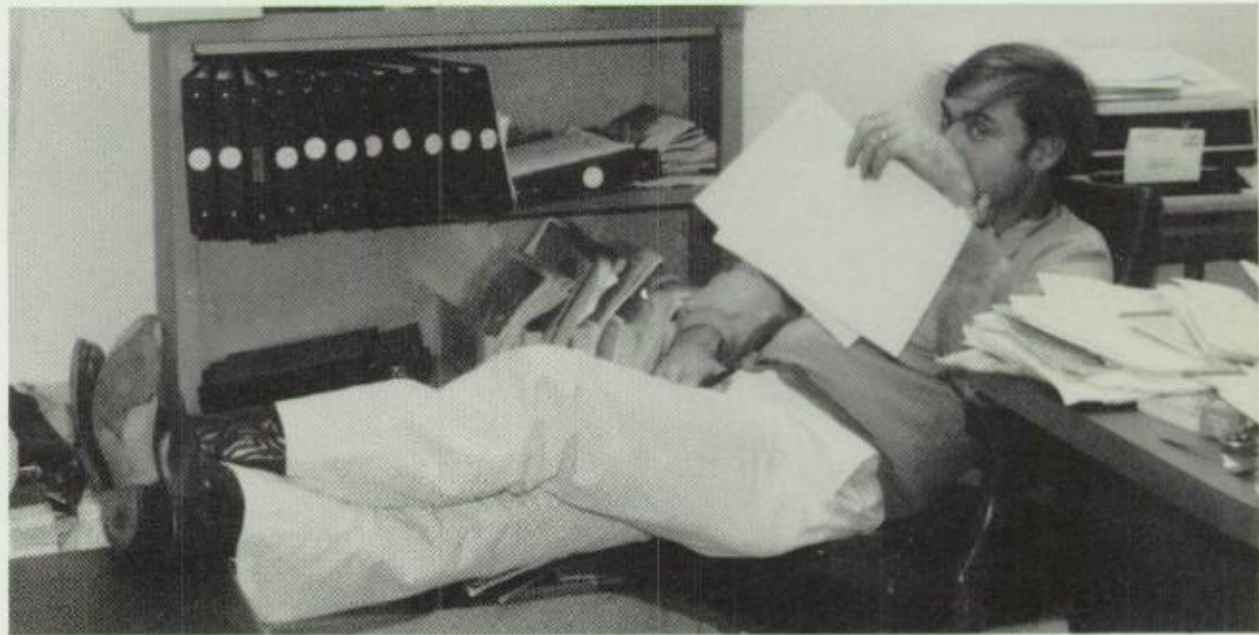

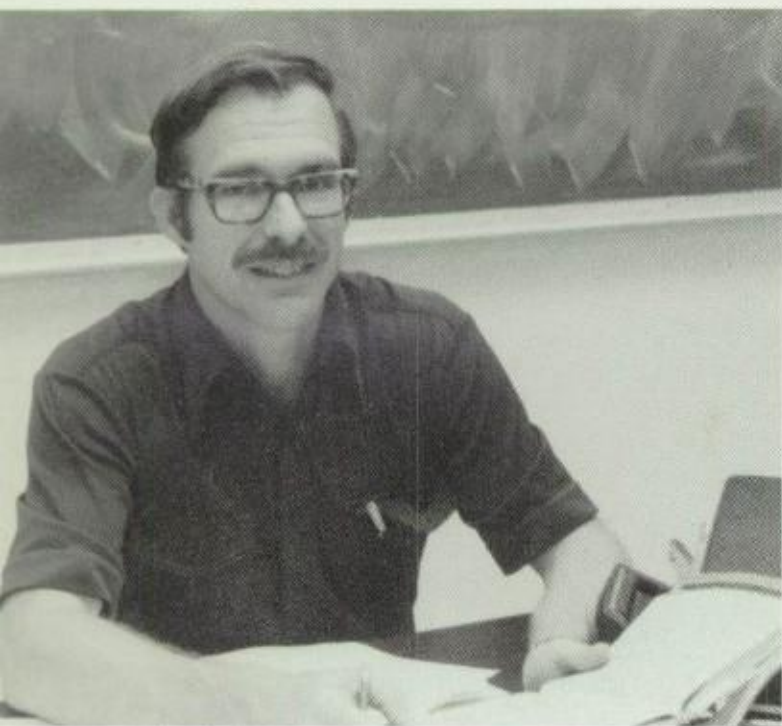

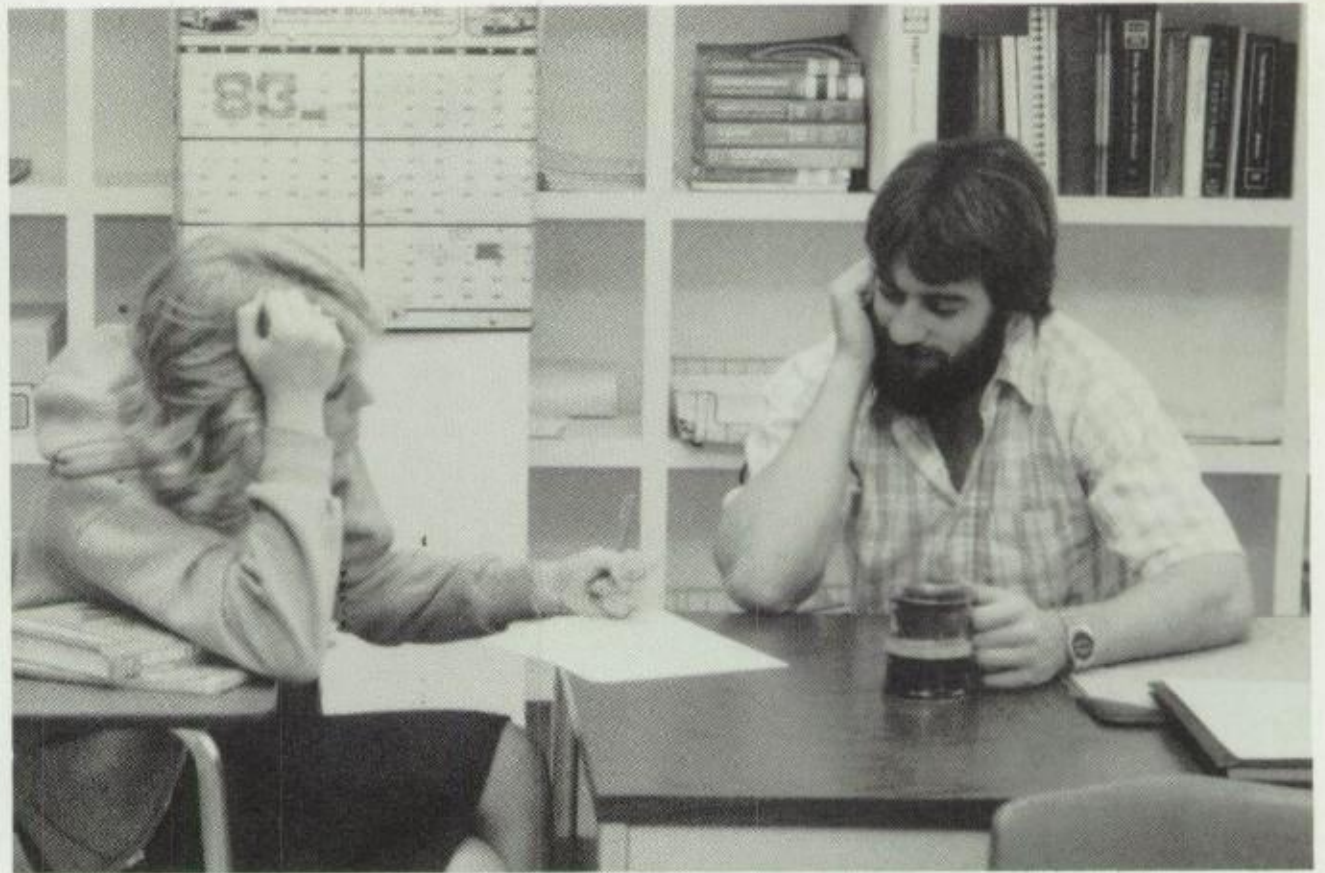

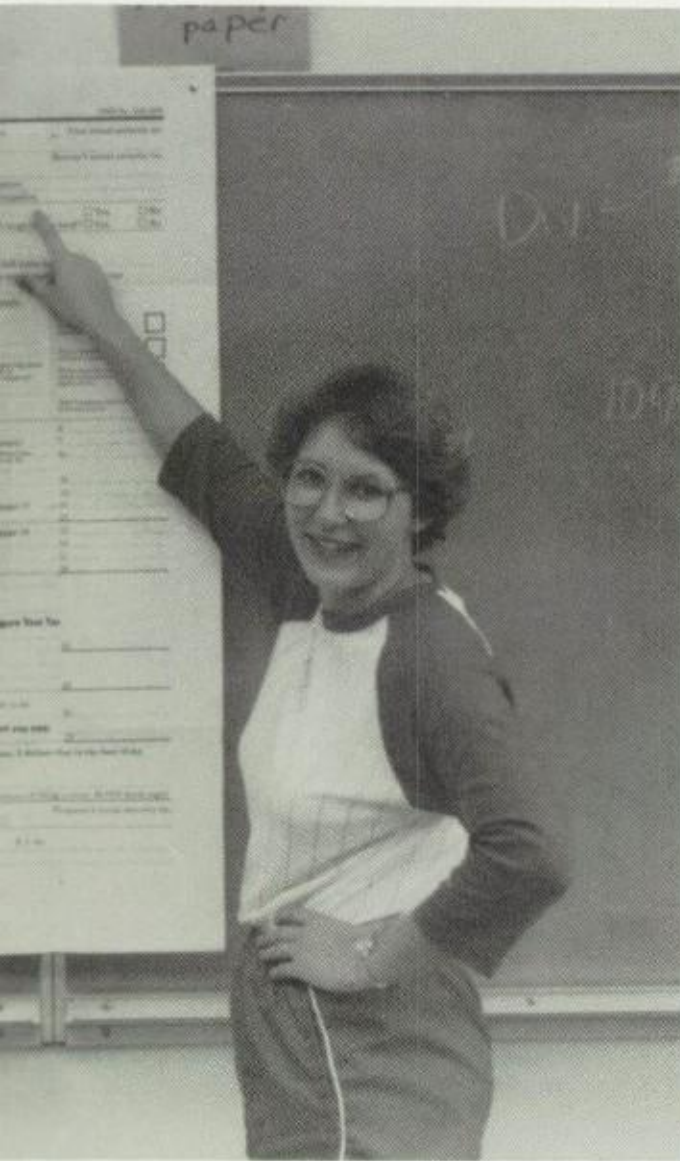

Kay Vanderlaan, our ship's pursor, is in charge of all bookkeeping aboard the L.W.C. Defender. She sees to it that your cruise is enjoyable and runs smoothly.

Our bus drivers supply transportation at the various places we stop.

BON VOYAGE!

L.W.C. DEFENDER

On many cruises, passengers travel first, second, or third class. On a L.W.C. Defender cruise, however, there's only one way to go: First Class.

Although our passengers come from many different backgrounds, every one of them receives the same special attention. As the cruise continues, they learn that they really do have a lot in common. They will share in unforgettable, once-in-a-lifetime experiences.

Let us introduce you to the passengers on our Play Decks.

Dear Pre-kindergarten class,

I've enjoyed getting to know you and watching you grow up this year. In the fall, some of you cried because you had to leave you mom. You all wanted everyone's individual attention. You didn't want to play together. Now you've learned to share our toys and our time in the classroom. You have learned to care about and love each other. We've become a Christian family.

We've had such fun learning about the wonderful world God created and in which He has placed us. We have made bread, cakes, and other treats, and have taken trips to the fire station, orange groves, hospital, Lolly the Trolly, and many other places. We've experimented with magnets, water, our larger magnifying glass, and other things to see how God's world works.

We've learned that God made us and He loves each of us, that He died so we could go to heaven to be with him someday, and that He plans for us all and will help us to do what he wants us to do. I hope and pray that you'll never forget how special you are and how much you are loved by me, by your families, and especially by God.

Your teacher,

Dear Kindergarten Class
of 1983,
We've had such fun this year;
It went by so quickly.

We have certainly grown
In almost every way.
We learned about the Bible
And God; we learned to pray.

We learned all our letters
And the sounds that they make,
We can print, count, draw, cut,
And, with help, even bake!

Our favorite part of day
Was "centers time" — for sure!
We also liked our field trips —
The places we got to tour.

Yet, if we forget all this
About the year we've seen,
Remember our last Bible verse —
Colossians 3:17,

"Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him."

Love,
Mrs. van Voorthuijsen

First Grade

Beginning to sail

Miss Kathleen Young

"But we're just having fun!"

Dear First (Furst) Graders,

First grade was the beginning. "The beginning of what?" you may ask. "The beginning of who?" you may wonder. First grade was the beginning of putting sounds together, to find that words really are formed that way. It was the beginning of putting numbers together in addition and taking them away in subtraction. It was the beginning of creative learning such as, "Let's see, the alligator always eats the greater number." It was learning to measure or count by 10's, 5's, 2's, or even beginning to tell time. Of course, what really mattered was learning how to count all that money!

You were constantly learning how to write and spell, how to remember what did and didn't need capital letters, and to know why in the world we say, "There is one mouse," and not, "There are two mice." First grade was the beginning of learning about our environment through science and social studies. Field trips helped us to see new dimensions. For instance, our trip to the zoo taught us about mammals, birds, and reptiles. Later we learned about fish when we visited the Science Museum. Teachers and trip chaperones remember one trip to the fair when one of you said, "Look, that cow just laid an egg." Yes, first grade was a new beginning!

All these new beginnings were for you, a child of God's precious handiwork created in his image. You were created to discover these new beginnings in order to better worship and reflect our Creator.

Second Grade

Dodging the buoys

Dear Second Grader,

It was August 24, 1982, and school had just begun for another year. I met you at the door. There you waited holding your new Pac Man lunch box and package of brand new crayons. The expression on your face told me you were happy to be there but wondering what the year would hold.

It was only a few days before new friends were made, routines were established, and learning had begun. Even though you didn't always like what we had to do, thanks for being willing to listen. You worked hard on dictation and math timed tests and were rewarded for your patience when Miss Groenewold came for P.E. Finally those books of the Bible were learned, and you began to look forward to writing in cursive. I was very proud of the progress you made in reading and language.

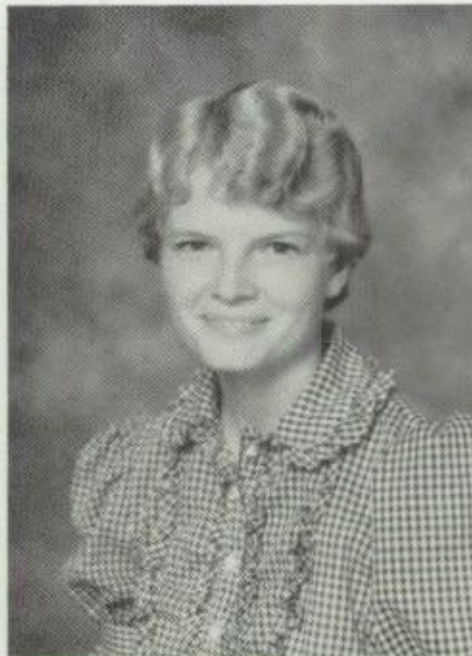

I'm glad you enjoyed the computer at the science museum and looking for animal tracks at Pine Jog. I clearly remember the look on your face when our guide passed a snake for you to touch. You couldn't believe a snake could be so "friendly"! You were excited about participating in the intramural track meet. You tried your best to show your school spirit, and you hoped you would be the one to wear the medal at the end of the day.

I hope you will always remember how God expects you to treat each other. Don't forget that everything you do each day must honor and praise Him. I will always feel thankful to God for letting me guide you through one year of your life.

Buenos dias, third graders!

Did you ever wonder what kind of memories teachers keep from each different class? Hmmm . . . When I remember you, I'll remember your love for animals and all the different critters that you brought for classroom pets. I'll remember discovering space with you and traveling around the world. I'll even remember the groans of "dictation" lessons, and how we tried to survive in a flooded classroom. I'll remember that energy and life that met me each morning as you climbed the steps to our room. I hope that you will remember the importance of "growing" and of sharing the love which Jesus has shared with us.

Auf Wiedersehen!

Dear Fourth Grade Class,

I've enjoyed getting to know each of you. It's been fun to watch you grow and mature throughout the year. You have changed in many ways. Not only has your spelling improved, but you can express yourselves in complete sentences. Your multiplication skills are sharpening as well as your Bible facts. Some of you are even a bit taller now.

Keep working hard for the Lord, and you will be assured that good things lie ahead.

"Cheesel"

Dear Fifth graders,

The 1982-1983 school year was an exciting year for us. We went to the Science Museum to learn more about earth science and atoms. They showed us many interesting experiments with different chemicals. We also went to the play Eleanor Roosevelt. This play told the life story of this great lady.

We accomplished many things in the classroom also. We learned many strange things about the workings of fractions and decimals. We studied the area of Mesopotamism, mainly Sumier, until all of us felt we knew these people as if they were our neighbors. Then we moved on and studied the areas where the Buddist and Hindu religions developed. In Science we learned about atoms, molecules, the earth, plants, vertebrates and invertebrates, and many other subjects. We did many experiments in these areas which brightened up our science classes.

Although it was an eventful and interesting year, I wish all of you the best in your coming school years. Always reach for the best that you can give.

Sincerely,
Miss Vander Wulp

Fifth And Sixth Grade Graduation

Due to the sixth grade transfer to the High Ridge Campus next year, both the fifth and sixth graders received Certificates of Promotion to Middle School on Friday evening June 6, 1983, at the Lake Worth Christian Reformed Church. The certificates and the awards were conferred in the sanctuary. Refreshments followed in the Fellowship Hall.

The Opening Act

Fifth And Sixth Grade Bands

This year provided the aspiring musicians of the Fifth and Sixth Grade Bands with valuable experience. Both groups were blessed with an unusually large enrollment of talented students.

The many long hours of hard work and preparation were worthwhile when band members were able to present excellent performances at the Fine Arts Festival and the Spring Band Concert.

We commend them for their fine efforts and look forward to their involvement in the Junior High Band in the years to come.

Christmas Concert

Monday, December 13, 1982, the elementary students presented "Christmas Allelujah" by Eugene Butler at the Lake Worth Christian Reformed Church. Their voices were joined by the church's handbell choir. Accompanying them were Laura Pasley and Meg Grabill on flutes and Jim Rigolo and Dan De Young on trumpets. Fourth graders contributed to the musical presentation on the percussion instruments. Together these students retold the story of our Savior's birth.

Elementary Fine Arts Festival

The week of February 22-25 was Fine Arts Week at the elementary school. In the areas of literature, spelling, speech, art, penmanship, science, and vocal and instrumental music, over 500 entries were judged. On February 28, thirty-five music entries which had received "I" ratings and the elementary band performed in the sanctuary. Afterwards, classrooms were opened so parents could view all the displayed entries in the visual arts and science.

ELEMENTARY SPORTS

Basketball

In previous years there's been both a girl's and a boy's basketball team, but due to lack of female participation, this year the girls and boys joined to together form one elementary basketball team.

The season went well. During the practices, much time went into learning basic skills and plays. This time was well rewarded. The first game was a loss to Our Savior Lutheran, but after that, the next three games were winners, twice over Progressive and once over St. Joseph's.

Soccer

The elementary soccer season was a huge success as the team won four games and only lost two. They played Progressive, Sunrise Academy, and Zion Lutheran School. The team played well together as a unit. The experienced players compensated for the less experienced, making the team solid throughout.

Track And Field

The year started with an Intramural Track Meet which involved any student in the school who wished to compete for the highest prize, the medal, which went to the girl and boy in each class who obtained the highest number of points in the meet.

On April 16, the Palm Beach County Independent Track Meet was held. This involved five other schools besides L.W.C.S. The meet gave our students the chance to compete with other students in the area and also get to know them socially. L.W.C.S. was represented well. We placed fourth, missing third by only eighteen points.

The final track meet was against Fort Lauderdale Christian. It was a good meet because students could compete with a school that has a lot in common with L.W.C.S. The students had a great time and enjoyed getting to know other Christian school students.

Diplomacy On Deck

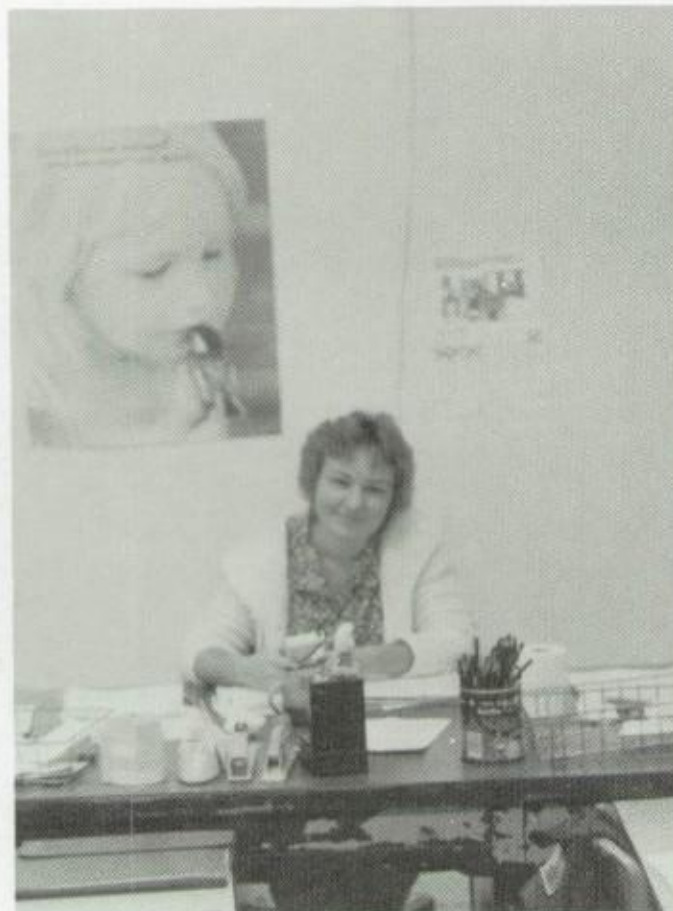

As you have been shown, the two Play Decks have a lot to offer, but this is only possible because these people kept them in ship-shape. The efficiency on these two decks is what it is today only because of the hard work of these crew members.

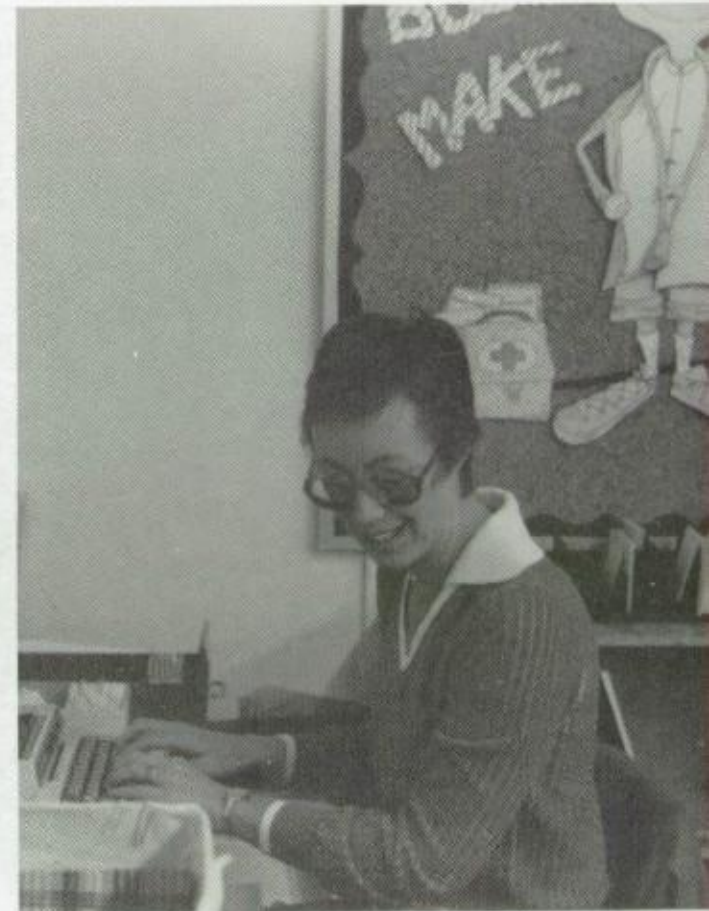

Mr. Tim Howell is always ready to substitute.

Mrs. Patricia Smith — Teacher's Aide

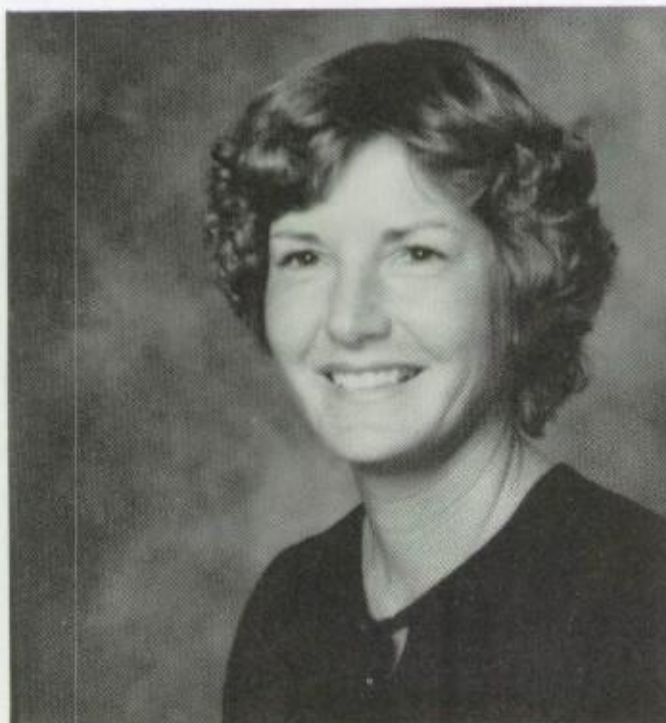

Miss Sharon Vander Wulp — 5th Grade
We will miss her next year. Best wishes!

Mrs. Jane Zylstra — Remedial Reading

Mrs. Linda Kibben — Teacher's Aide

Mrs. Billie Minor — Teacher's Aide

L.W.C. DEFENDER

As your cruise goes on, you become aware that something wonderful is happening. Your adventure is on its way to a very happy ending. The people with whom you began your cruise are no longer strangers and the L.W.C. Defender staff is becoming closer to you as they attempt to assist you in various areas of your life.

Entertainment is provided by bands and choirs which diligently practice daily to maintain the high standards set by L.W.C. Defender Cruises. You are sure to enjoy them almost as much as they enjoy performing for you.

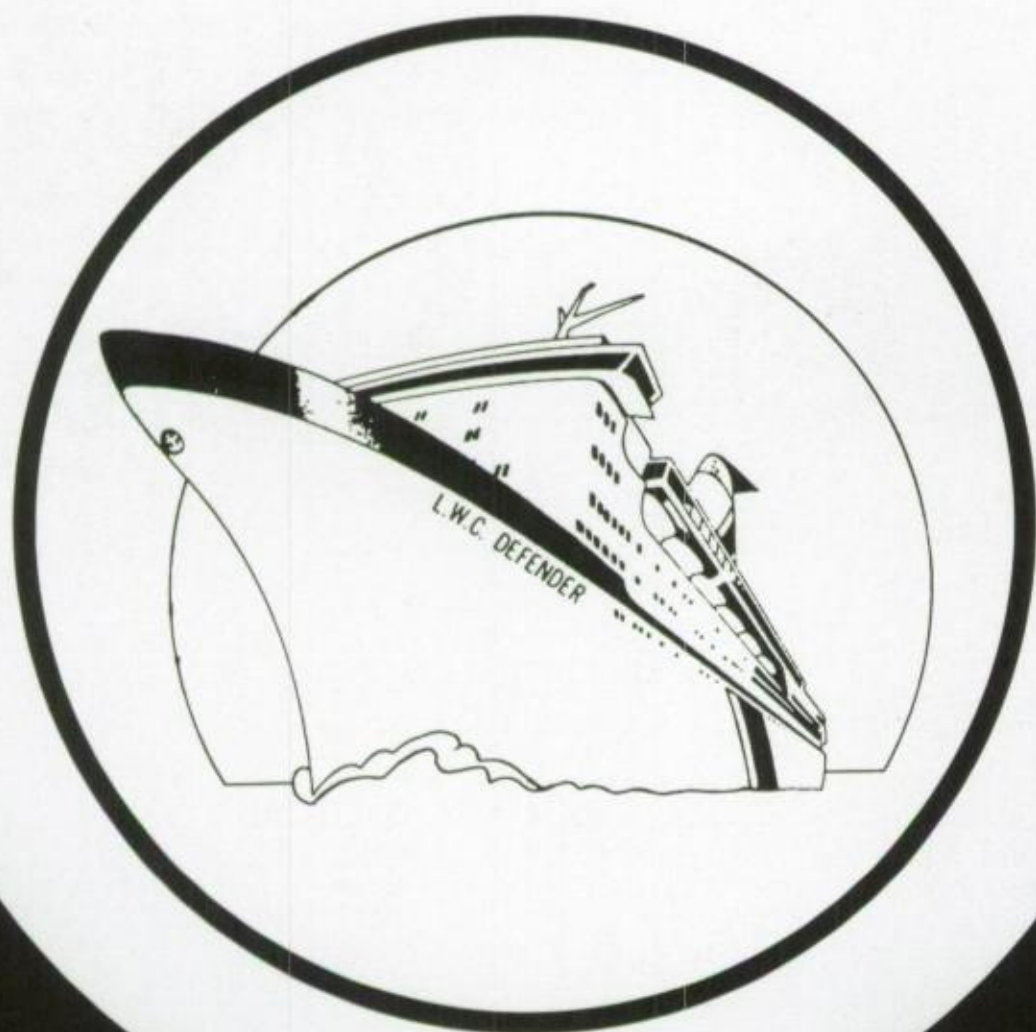

Sports also become a very important part of your life, whether you are an active participant or a spectator. To some, their sport is very important. It is the difference between going on a cruise or staying home. To others, athletics is merely a way to relax, enjoy themselves, and spend time with friends.

Now allow us to take you to the upper levels of our ship and introduce you to the people aboard and what these two decks have to offer.

ENTERTAINMENT

Junior High Choir

This year the Junior High Choir had many valuable experiences. Under the superb direction of Mrs. Boot, the choir performed at the annual Fall concert, provided special music for the evening service at Christ Community Church, and participated in the C.S.I. Junior Choral Festival in Fort Lauderdale. The choir members have learned the basics of music, and we know they will be valuable assets to the Senior High Choir in the coming years.

The Concert Choir had many opportunities to provide excellent entertainment this year. Their concerts included performances at the Fall Music Festival, the Madrigal Dinners, and the C.S.I. Choral Festival in Bradenton, a major highlight of the year. Several ensembles competed for superior ratings against ensembles from other C.S.I. schools; all of our singers received excellent ratings, with Kris Bell, Ariel, and a girls octet receiving "best-of-the-day" awards. The choir, performing alone as well as participating in the rendition of Vivaldi's "Gloria" with the mass choir, gave an excellent showing and received several comments of praise from the other choir directors. Everyone will agree that the choir has a lot to show for their hard work, and we are proud of them.

ARIEL

Ariel, with the addition of nine new singers, had a very busy schedule to keep. Some of their many performances include several numbers at the Fall Festival and Madrigal Dinners, numerous mini-concerts at various churches in our area, as well as an outstanding display at the C.S.I. Choral Festival in Bradenton. The ensemble, traveling to Bradenton late on Thursday night, was judged early on Friday morning by the choral clinician. Later in the day, they received a "best-of-the-day" award for their show of talent. This year Ariel will be losing several singers to graduation, and we'd like to wish them well in their futures.

THE MADRIGAL DINNER: A VERY SPECIAL BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

The Madrigal Dinners were a huge success. Everyone had a good time, whether singing or enjoying good food and entertainment. Mrs. Boot (the music teacher) and her husband worked night and day for weeks to make sure that every detail was accounted for.

The Dinners were held on two nights, Friday the 10th and Saturday the 11th of December at the Seacrest Presbyterian Church in Boynton Beach. The Lake Worth Christian High School choir provided the entertainment for the evening. Half of the choir served the dinners and the other half sang. They switched these roles each night. The dinner included cranberry fruit salad, wassail, stuffed pork chops, green beans, baked potatoes, freshly baked rolls, and figgy pudding.

All through the evening, music was provided by brass ensembles, woodwind ensembles, and a pianist.

Mr. Greydanus played the most humorous part of the production. He was the court jester. Throughout the evening, he could be found under tables, cutting people's ties, or ringing a mistletoe bell over a person's head.

The standing ovation at the end of the program rewarded the hard work of all who participated in making this Christmas celebration a success.

"We have to kiss who?"

Musical family?

"Did you have to take a picture?"

"You think that's funny — wait until you see the next one!"

The Junior High Band, after many grueling hours of rehearsal and practice, gave a good performance at the annual Fun Day. Under Mrs. Boot's careful supervision, the Junior High band members have learned many valuable lessons which will enable them to become better musicians in the Concert Band in the future.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The concert band has put a lot of time and effort into rehearsals and music, and this year their work has once again paid off. With an excellent performance at the fall concert, they went on to give a lot of support to the Madrigal Dinners and Fun Day. They wound up the year with an excellent rating at the C.S.I. Band Festival, as well as with a fine execution at the final concert in May.

J.V. Netters Take On Big Names

The junior varsity volleyball team ended a successful season with a record of 5-2 before going into the Twin Lakes Junior Varsity Volleyball Tournament. The tournament proved to be tough competition against much larger schools.

Miss Hofman, coach, expressed that the valuable experience gained became evident throughout the season. Every team member put good effort toward the team.

At the Athletic Award's Banquet, the following received special recognition:

Sandra Vander Kooi	— Most Valuable Player
Sandra Noakes	— Most Improved
Traci Rinker	— Best Attitude

This year's volleyball team was dominated by juniors. The only senior, Linda Clager, served as captain. The girls suffered from a lack of team unity early in the season but jelled together in District Competition. They won the fourth straight volleyball district championships for Lake Worth Christian. With the loss of only one player, the team should be strong again next year.

Varsity Soccer

This year the varsity team gave L.W.C. a very exciting soccer season. Going into districts with a 9-5 record, their first two wins spread the enthusiasm throughout the school. The season climaxed with the final match against Zion Lutheran; most of the senior high students were present cheering them on. Their loss in this game was a disappointment, but nevertheless, L.W.C. was tremendously proud of their team.

Bouncing Into Basketball

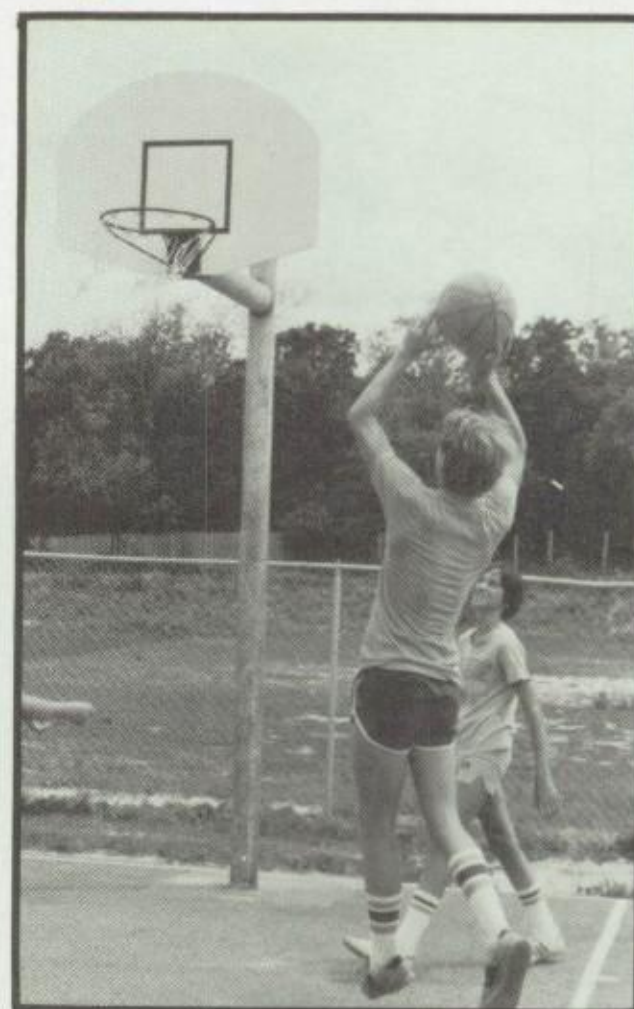

Both the junior high basketball team and the junior varsity team worked and played hard this year. Mr. Welton, coach of the junior high boys, strived to give the team a good foundation in basketball. Mr. Andringa, the junior varsity coach, did a fine job in giving the guys further experience, preparing many of them to move up to the varsity team next year.

This year's basketball season began slowly but "rebounded" into a successful season with an excellent record of 14-5. They were seated first in districts but lost in semi-finals to Highlands Christian. The team is losing six seniors: Jeff Borst, Dennis Cunningham, Jeff Dykstra, Dan Fountain, Kevin Smith, Brett VanVels. They are also losing one junior, Dan Seagrave, but the remaining four juniors are promising prospects for next year.

The squad improved a great deal by the closing of the season. The dedication and spirit of the girls were very much appreciated.

The women's varsity basketball team was out in full force this year with eight people. Seven girls returned from last year. Sandra Vander Kooi was the only returning starter. Connie Vander Griend, the only freshmen, was the newcomer on the team.

With the help of Coaches Hofman and Kooi, the team had a fine season (13-4 win-loss record), and claimed runner-up in the district competition.

Special recognition goes to Linda Clager who will be leaving this year. The team will miss her, but they look forward to another good season with the returning players.

A New Racquet

Lake Worth Christian's first tennis team concluded their season with a 3-3 win-loss record.

The team consisted of six players. Lee Levenson and Jeff Johnson alternated for the number one spot on the team. Eric Fraga held down the number three spot. Ron Smith and Rick Conklin were number four and five seeds, and Steve Moore held the alternate position.

The tennis season included matches against Benjamin, King's Academy, Potomac, Santaluces, and Palm Beach Day School.

The number one doubles team, Lee Levenson and Jeff Johnson, went as far as semi-finals in districts which were held in Boca Raton.

Women's Softball

The varsity women's softball team completed their season with a 12 win-3 loss record, a district trophy, and regional runner-up.

Coaches Hofman and Kooi were very happy with the season and are looking forward to another successful one next year. A special thank-you to the following seniors who will be leaving us: right fielder, Daphne Murphy; first baseman and 1983 Most Valuable Player, Linda Clager; and Shawna Book, an excellent pitcher.

Run For The Money

Cross Country

In cross country this year we hope that we have established a base to build on next year and that more students will come out next year. Each member of the team improved their performance and also learned something about mental determination and endurance. This is as much a part of the good cross country runner as is physical conditioning.

The leading runner this year was Michelle Monegue, an eighth grader. Michelle finished eight in the District Meet.

The following are the girls' best times for this year:

Michelle Monegue	13:27
Sue De Young	14:44
Laura Pasley	19:00

Boys' best times this year for three miles:

Keep On Trackin'!

In our first full season of varsity track, the ten girls and seven boys who made up our team represented our school very well. We participated in seven triangular and quadrangular meets and qualified nine girls and two boys for the Class A State Meet. Individually, each athlete experienced much improvement.

Exceptional performances for our girls were turned in by Arlette VanderKooi in the 110 and the 330 yd. hurdles and relays; by Lisa Riggs in the Long Jump, 100 and 220 yd. dashes and relays; by Michelle Monegue in the 2 Mile, and by Cathy Yocum in the Shot Put.

This year our boys were led by seniors Jeff Dykstra, who always won or placed in the Triple Jump, 220, 440, or 880, and relays; Russ Nagelkirk, our most versatile athlete, who participated in the Shot Put, High Jump, 120 High Hurdles, 330 Intermediate hurdles, and relays; and Dan DeYoung, whose best events were the 880, and the Discus. Paul Galloway led the half mile, and Scot DeYoung and Tony Taylor led the 2 Milers.

Athletic Banquet

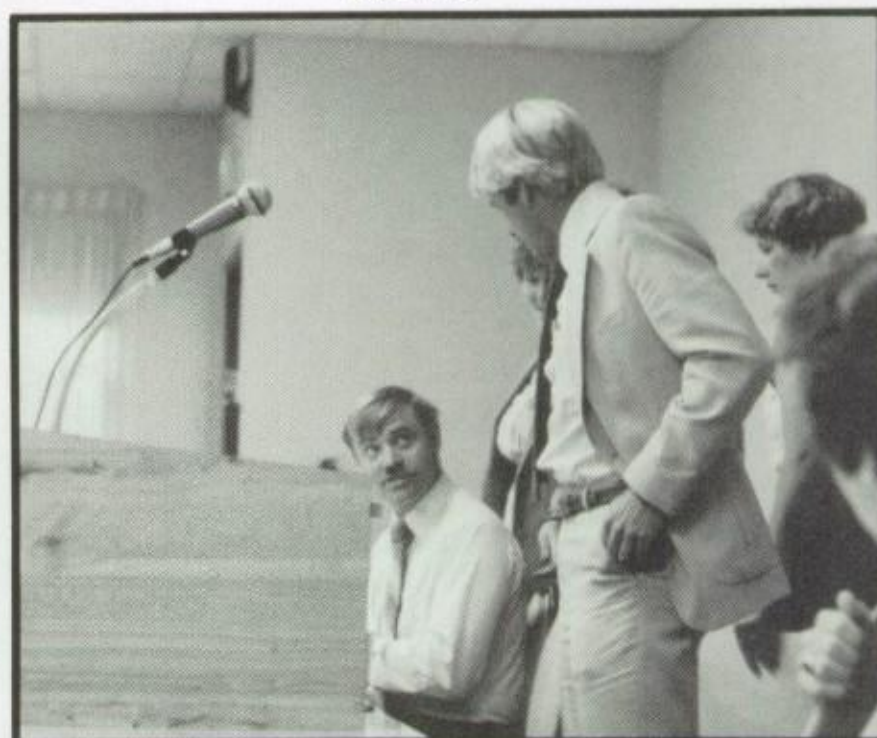

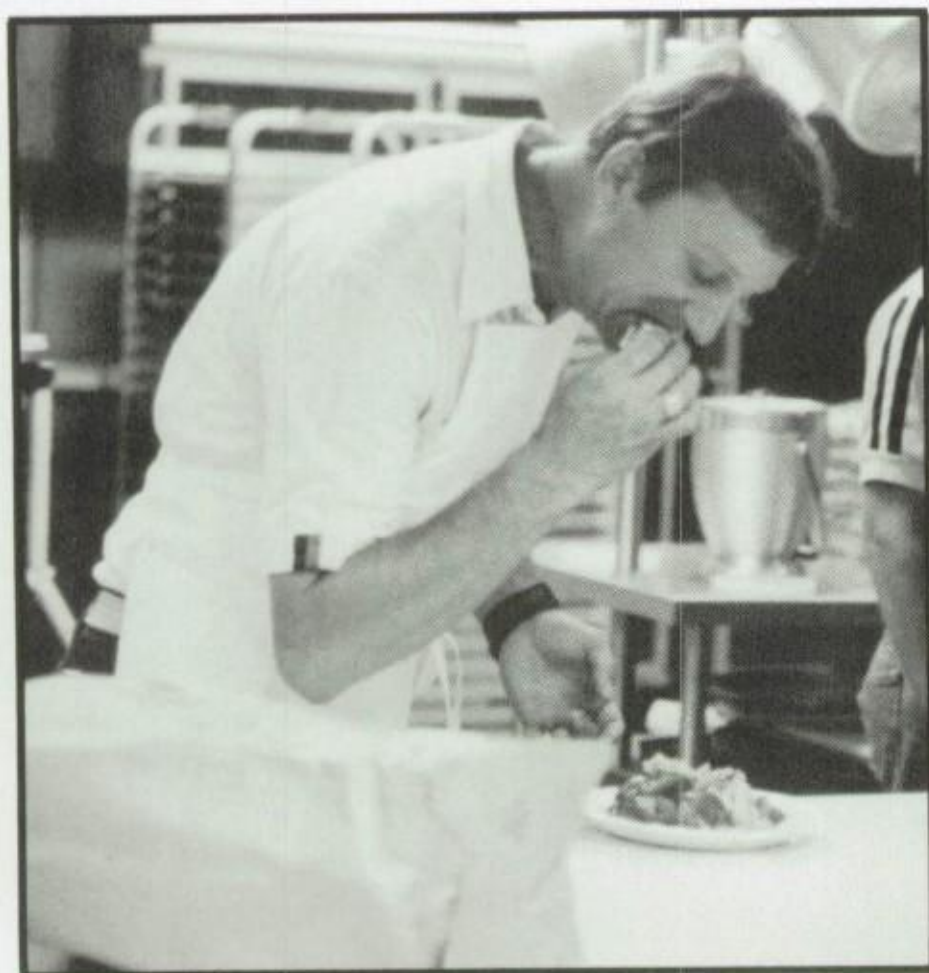

Thanks to the support and cooperation of approximately 170 parents, coaches, and students, a very successful Athletic Banquet was held on May 5, 1983. The evening took place at Secrest Presbyterian Church. The delicious dinner was buffet style. Families brought various dishes to complement the main dish, baked ham.

Guests prepare for dinner.

You forgot the awards?

Participants in the fall, winter, and spring sports were honored by the coaches and athletic boosters. The highlights of the evening were the naming of Jeff Dykstra as male athlete of the year and the naming of Linda Clager as female athlete of the year. Arlette Vander Kooi was chosen to receive the coach's award.

Each of the Lake Worth Christian 1982-83 athletes was to be commended for representing our school through their participation in various sports programs.

LAKE WORTH CHRISTIAN PIG ROAST . . .

On April 30, 1983, Lake Worth Christian held their fourth annual Pig Roast and Blue Grass Festival at the home of John Van Vels.

It was a beautiful, warm, spring Saturday, as five hundred people sat in their lawn chairs and listened to the great local blue grass bands. A few of the groups were Share, South Ocean String band, Florida Harvesters, Ridge Runners, and Palm Beach County Blue Grass Ramblers. While listening to the great music, everyone filled up on delicious barbequed pork, potato salad, and ice cream. There were pony rides for the little children, and volleyball, basketball, and frisbee, for the others.

Lake Worth Christian grossed approximately $3,000. This money went to the building fund for the new gymnasium and to the athletic department.

... GOING HOG-WILD!

Fun Day '83

The organization of Fun Day begins a year before it actually takes place. The Ladies' Guild puts in many hours of time and effort as they plan the activities, displays, and booths for the coming Fun Day. This year was no exception as the ladies, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joan Starr and Mrs. Candy Vann, worked diligently to insure the success of Fun Day '83.

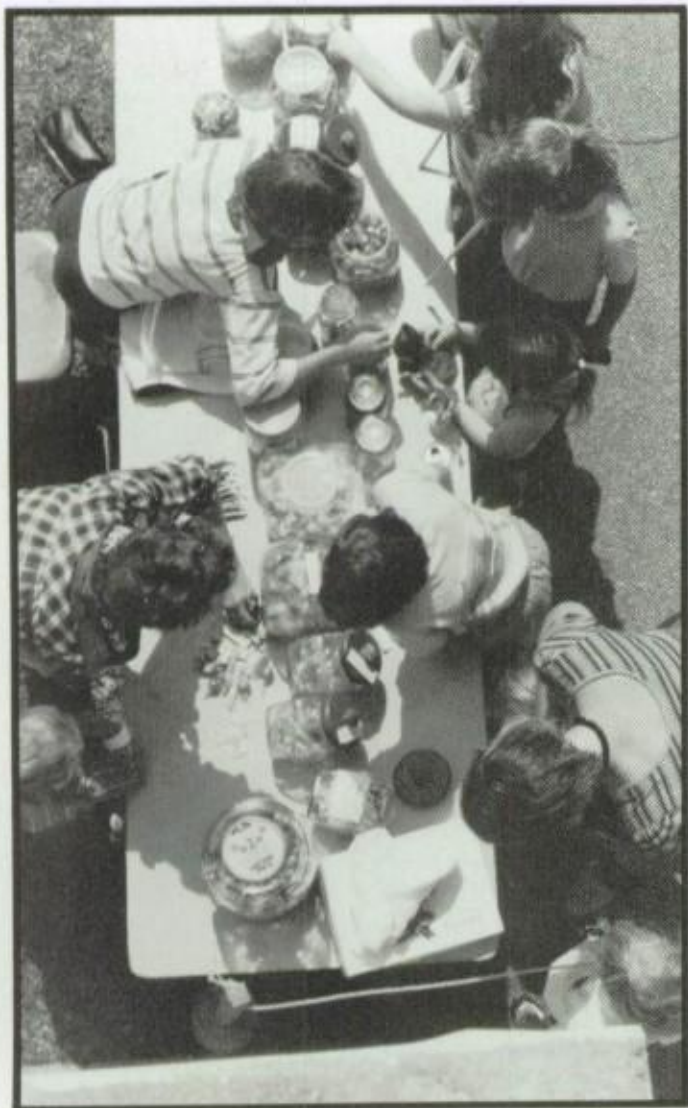

Behind the scene planning.

Grandma's Attic displayed many handmade items.

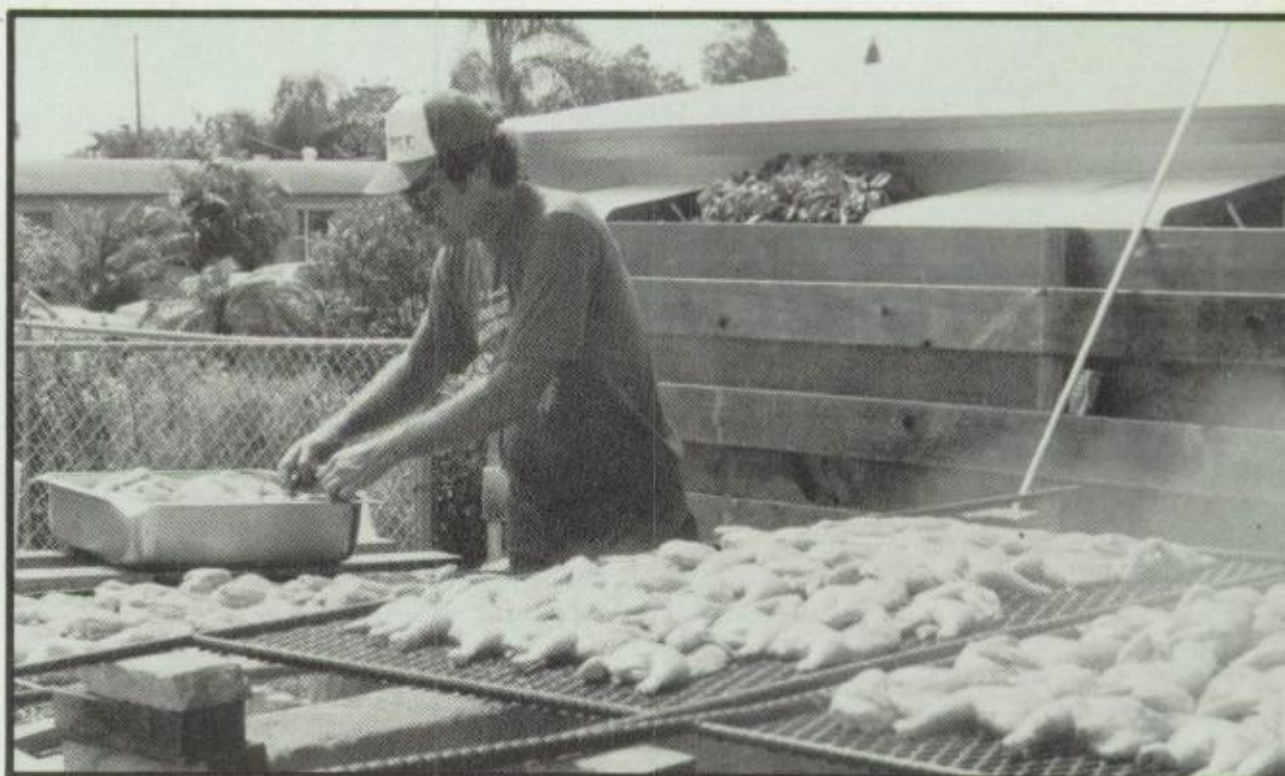

Welcome to Fun Day!

The weather was warm and sunny. Spirits were high as many people gathered together for a time of fun and fellowship. As the day progressed, the jailhouse became smaller (they really packed those teachers in!), the ollie bollen became fewer (were they good!), and the sunburned arms and faces grew more obvious.

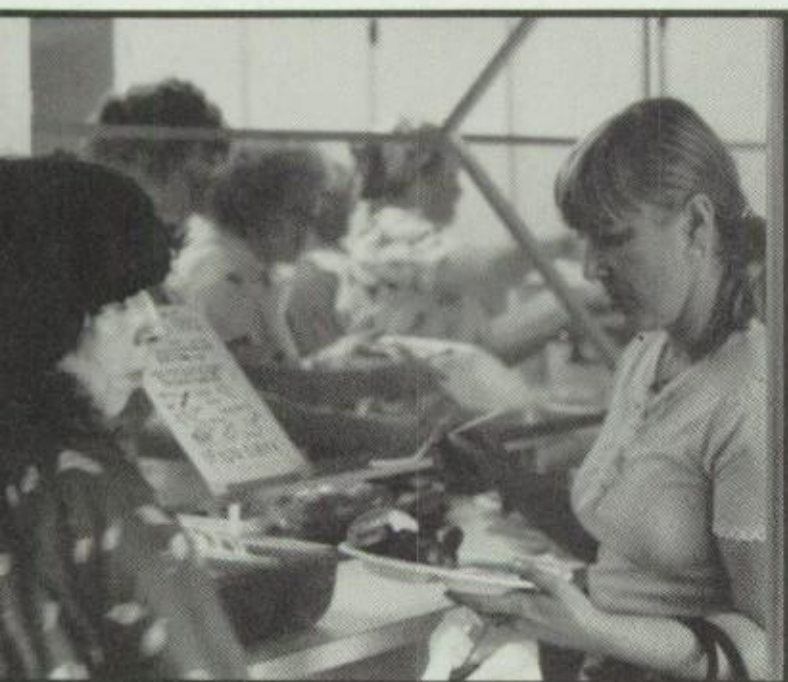

Below: One of the several musical groups provides entertainment.

And who could forget that fantastic chicken barbeque that began at 3:30 am? Hungry diners were not disappointed as they enjoyed a delicious meal, accompanied by several scrumptuous baked goods.

The hours invested in Fun Day '83 paid off in a handsome profit of $18,000. This project was definitely a winner, thanks to the participation of so many people, both young and old. Everyone worked for a single cause — earning money to buy the special extras that make our school so wonderful. And the really nice thing about it was . . . it was FUN!

ORGANIZATIONS

God Is Our Co-Pilot

The Chapels were more interesting this year than ever before. Students participated during almost every chapel and also played a very large role in organizing them. The chapels all dealt with a similar theme such as the Beatitudes. Many Christian music groups witnessed to the High School through their songs and Biblical insight.

Chapel Committee: Paul Galloway, Sue DeYoung, Dennis Cunningham, Jessica Garrett, Sandy Spender and Mr. DeYoung (Not Pictured: Sabrina Meeker).

The National Honor Society gained many new members this year. The induction into the society is based on character, leadership, scholastic, and achievement abilities. The members sponsored a Valentine's Day Party for the teachers and also met for dinner at Tequilla Willie's. The society is sponsored by Mrs. Bosman and allows the members to enjoy and spend time together.

Keeping The Ship's Log

The L.W.C. Defender Journalism Department was challenged this year. Even though it was given time during school rather than being solely extracurricular, students burned the midnight oil to meet deadlines.

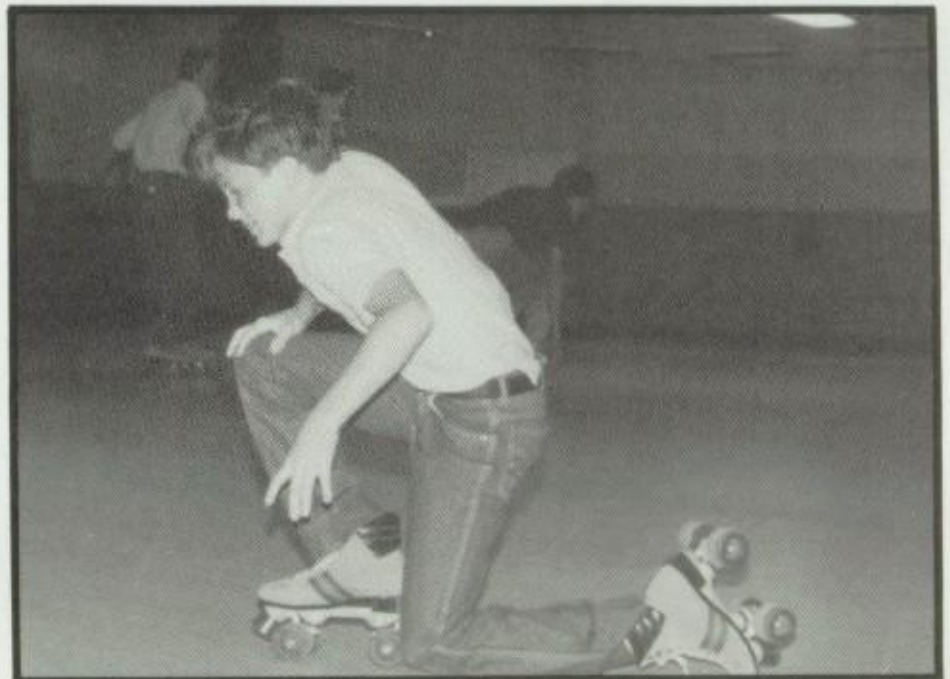

This year, a school newspaper was introduced. The Mirror gave students the opportunity to find out the real meaning of the word "deadline" and challenged them to organize their thoughts and gather information which appeared in final form as a newspaper article. These articles "mirrored" events throughout the school year and also entertained both passengers and crew members. Our newspaper reflected the dedication of each staff member.

Throughout the second semester, energy and time were focused toward the production of Reflections, an annual publication. The staff worked hard to establish a creative theme and develop it through artwork and copy. In this book, we hope that we have captured your memories of an unforgettable school year.

A special thank you to Karen Majewski, Sabrina Meeker, Debbie Conklin, Jay Lowe (our Josten's representative), and Mrs. Janet Howell who all devoted endless hours to the production of Reflections 82-83.

Jr. High Student Council

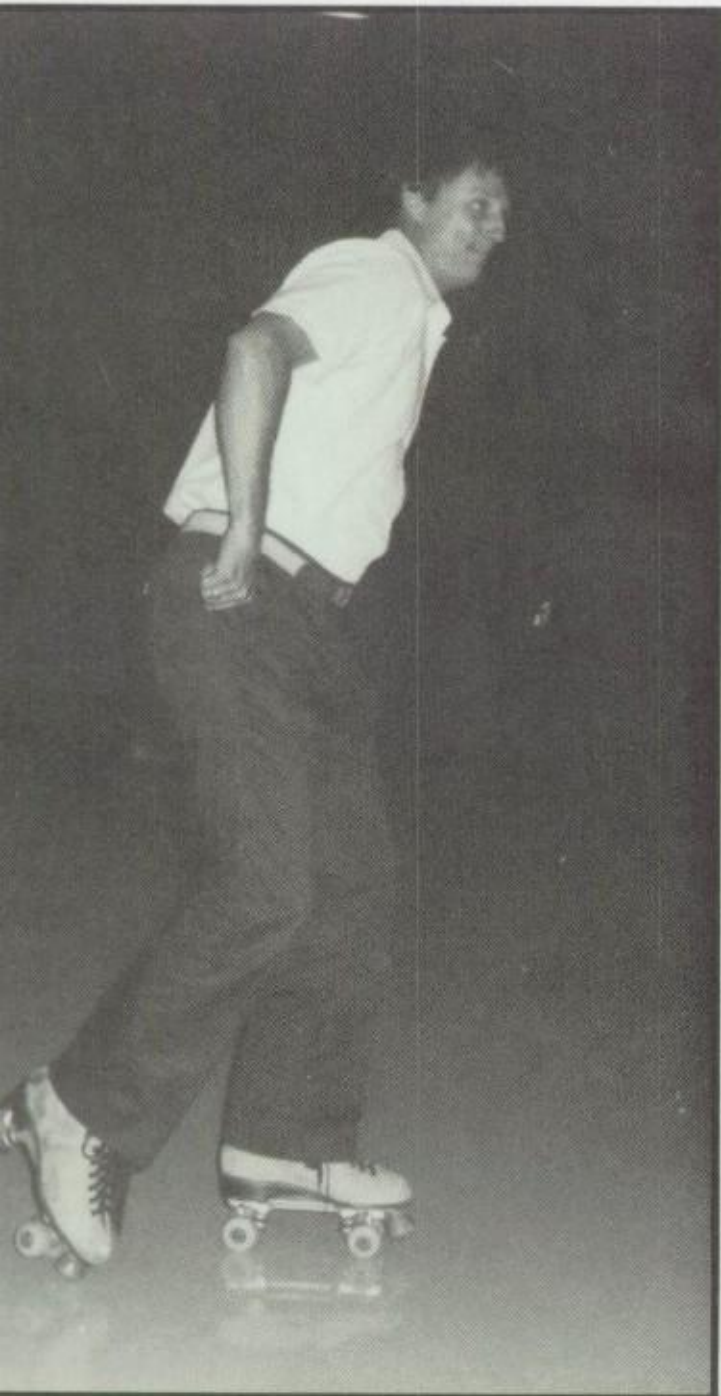

The Junior High Student Council had a busy year, organizing everything from a fun-filled Spirit week to several skating parties, (ooh my aching knees!). On March 11, a Saturday morning, the Student Council (and Shannon Jones) worked for three straight hours washing all of the Lake Worth Christian School buses. Their efforts brought in $80.00. They concluded the year with a bonfire. Students participated in many games, such as tug-o-war, the egg toss, and the ever popular treasure hunt. They were lead in song by Alan Kaiser, who played his guitar in accompaniment. The party ended with all-you-can-eat pizza and soda. All who attended had an enjoyable evening.

"And to think I pay to go here!"

Transportation at its best.

High School Student Council

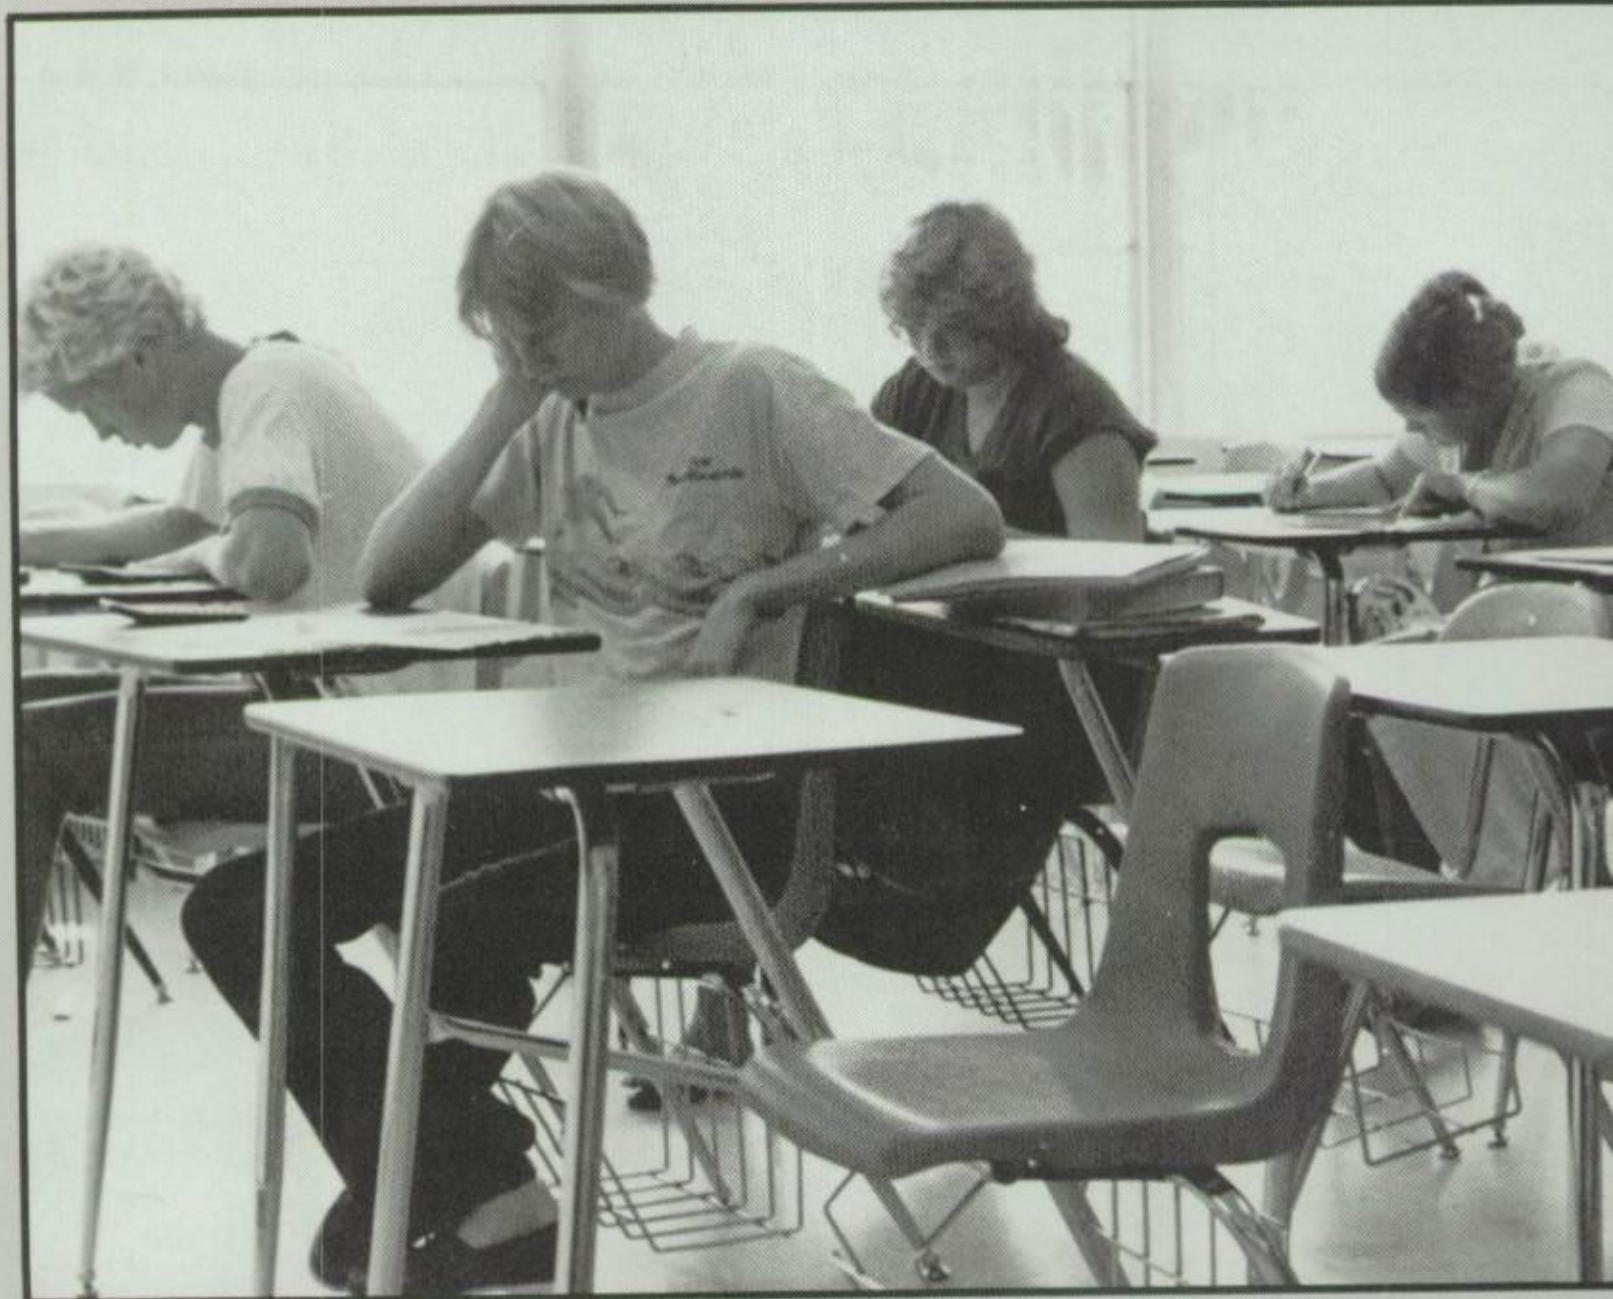

This year, the L.W.C. Defender Student Council served the school by organizing several skating parties, selling "Kissmas-Grams" right before Christmas vacation, and sponsoring the annual sale of Candy-Grams and Flower-Grams for Valentines Day. They also put together a Spirit Week to try to increase school spirit among the high school students.

LW.C. DEFENDER

For many experienced cruise passengers, the Festivity Deck is one of the most desirable decks on the L.W.C. Defender. It has something very special to offer you, and our agenda includes many challenging activities. For the artistic passenger, it includes band, choir, and an art class; and algebra, computer science, and physics interest the science-minded passengers aboard our ship. When you book a cruise on the L.W.C. Defender, you know more than just where you are going, you also know what you are doing.

Freshmen: Swabbing The Deck

The Freshmen have had a very enjoyable first year at Lake Worth Christian High School. They were very active in sports and music programs and really showed their spirit during Spirit Week. The Class of 1986 has had a great "first year."

Class Officers and Advisors: Miss Hofman, Bob Hamilton (Treas.), Kim Hoogendorn (Sec.), Mr. DeYoung, Kim Riggs (Pres.), and Tony Taylor (Vice-Pres.).

Sophomores: Manning The Bow

The Sophomore Class was very prosperous this year; they raised hundreds of dollars from selling pizzas, washing cars, and sponsoring bake sales. They have become very involved in Lake Worth Christian High School and are full of school spirit. The class of 1985 has already begun planning their class tip and have been making plans for next year's Junior-Senior Banquet. They are working hard to reach their full potential while still taking time to have fun and games along the way.

The Junior Class kept themselves very busy this year. They began the year by raising money through sponsoring spaghetti dinners and soup suppers. Then, they gave the Junior-Senior Banquet in honor of the Class of 1983. The banquet was a great success and their hard work really paid off. Now they prepare to enter their final year of high school.

Dining At The Captain's Table

New York City, the "Top of the Heap," was where the members of the senior class found themselves upon arriving at the Junior-Senior Banquet. This evening in New York was held at Bobby Rubino's on Friday, April 22, 1983.

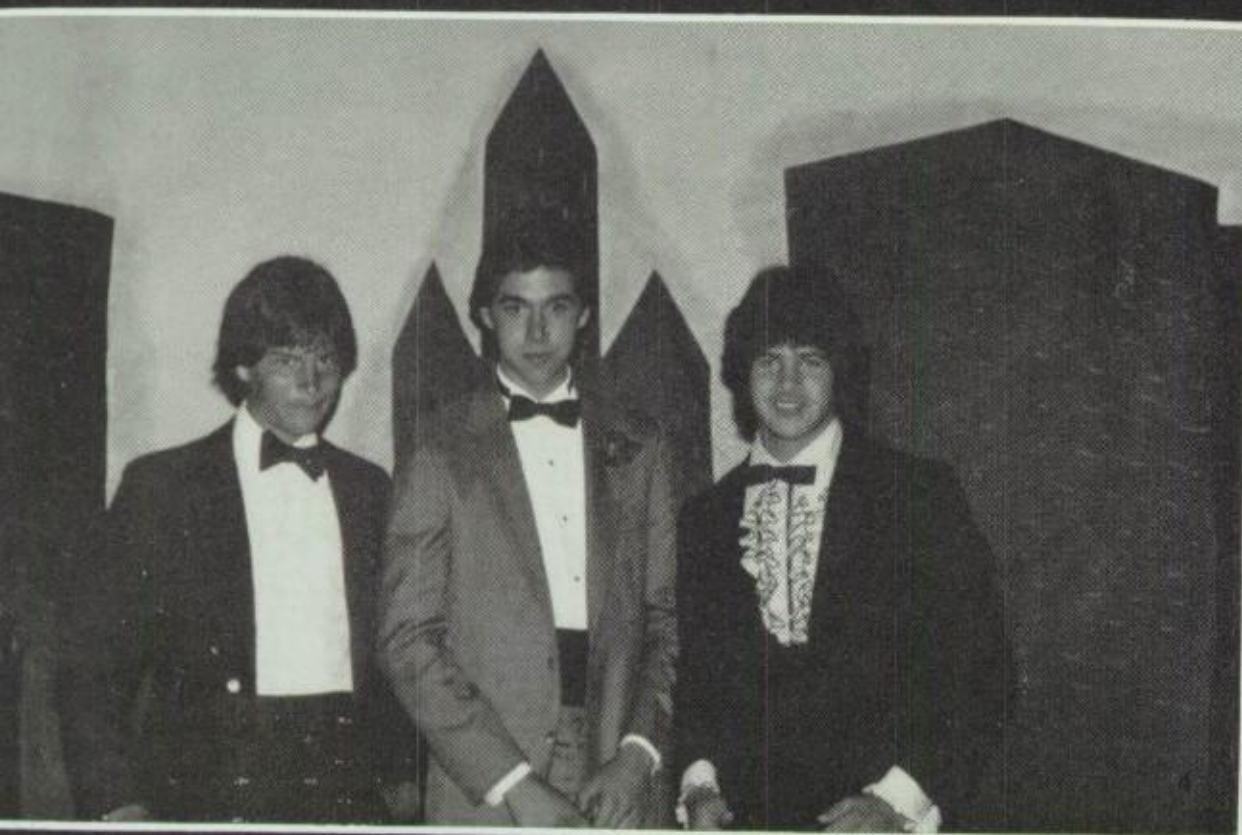

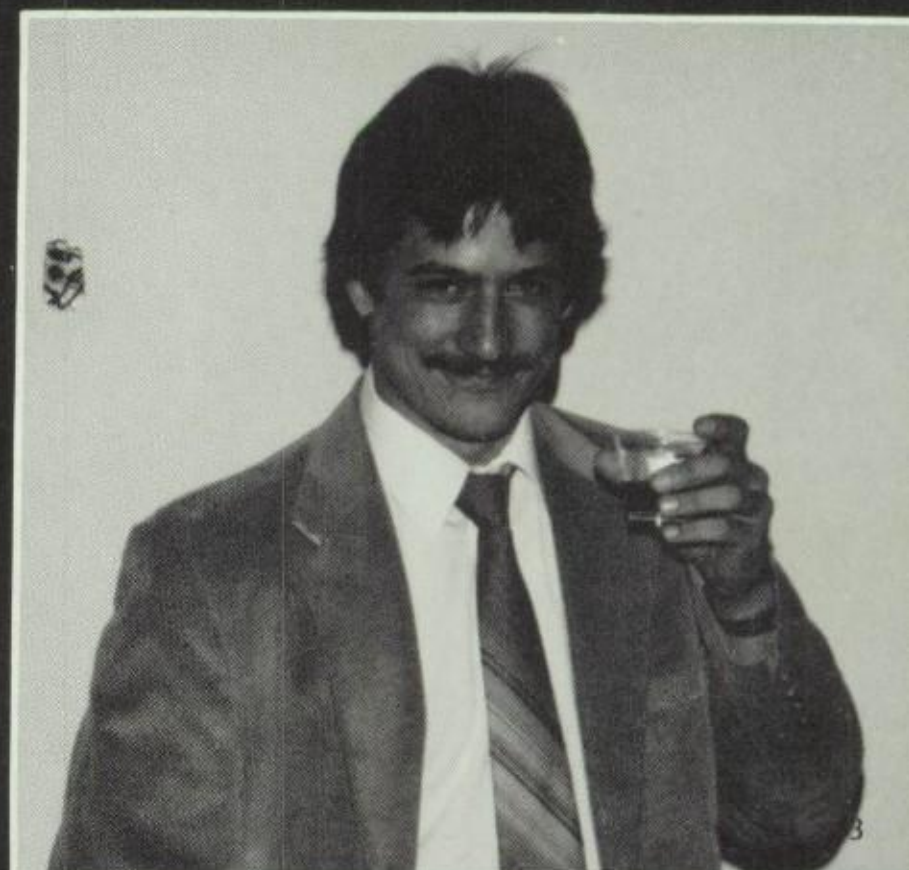

Highlights of the evening included a scrumptious seven course buffet meal, and James Ward received rave reviews for his noteworthy performance on the piano and keyboards.

Many thanks to the juniors for providing a "four star" night of exceptionally fine entertainment.

1. Jeff Borst and Theresa Louter enjoy the evening all decked out. 2. Russ Nagelkirk impresses everyone with his magic tricks. 3. The Kooys and the Hagedorns await the entertainment. 4. Jeff Van Kalker and Diane Jackson pose for the photographer.

1. Donna Carden and Chris Lovell look forward to a memorable Junior-Senior Banquet. 2. Mr. and Mrs. Boot sit back and enjoy the banquet. 3. Mr. Van Popering won the bet. Not only did he shave off his beard, but he also got his hair cut. O.K. now everybody, it's time to pay up! 4. Lee Levenson, Dan Seagrave, and Andy Graves pose in their tuxes in front of the New York Skyline.

Getting Away From It All

On May 26, the seniors embarked on a two-day excursion to Walt Disney World's Epcot Center and The Dark Continent, Busch Gardens.

Bright and early on Thursday morning, they arrived at Walt Disney World's Epcot Center. There the group journeyed through time and space in Future World and toured several different countries in the World Showcase. Later that evening, everyone boarded the bus and headed for their overnight accommodations in Tampa. There they spent their free time participating in various aquatic sports including pool football and belly-flop contest.

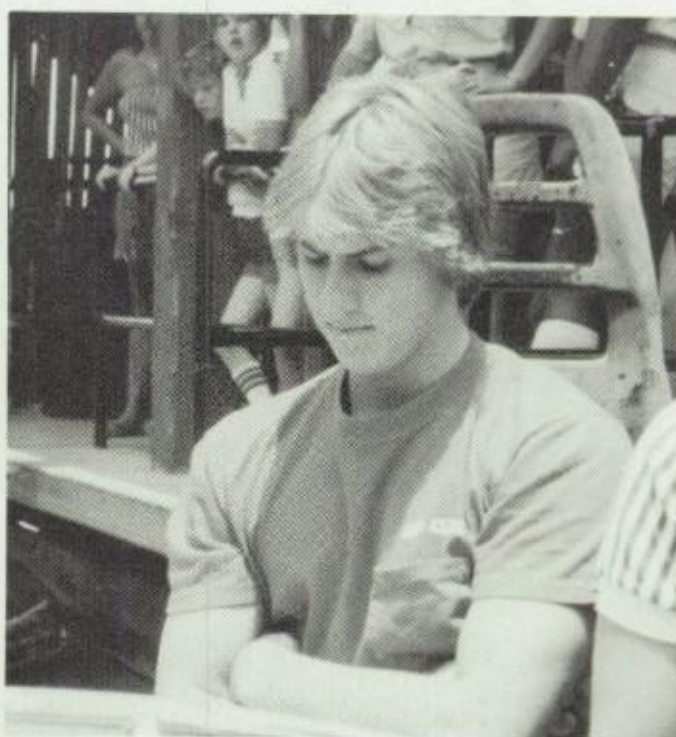

O.K. Mr. Welton, the rollercoaster ride is over. You can let go of the safety bar!

Right Sharon and Daphne, it's our turn to pose with the soldiers!

Senior Class Trip

Friday morning began with an early breakfast and a short bus ride to Busch Gardens. Inside The Dark Continent, wild and exotic animals of the jungle, wilder thrilling rides, dazzling shows, and delicious food awaited the seniors.

After their fun-filled day in Busch Gardens, everyone loaded up the bus with all of their souvenirs to remember their excursion and began their long bus ride back to the L.W.C. Defender, ending their two-day excursion.

Grad Nite '83

A graduation party to remember

On May 6, 1983, the senior class disembarked the L.W.C. Defender for one of the biggest graduation parties of 1983 at Grad Nite '83 in Disney World. Everyone was dressed up and enjoying themselves and by the end of the evening, many girls had mastered the art of riding Space Mountain with a dress on.

All of the seniors agreed that the bands that played in the various sections of Disney World were super. Steel Breeze, Greg Kihn Band, Night Ranger, Marshall Crenshaw, and the Dazz Band all gave first-rate performances throughout the evening and into the early morning hours.

Grad Nite '83 certainly was a special night to remember, but everyone was exhausted by dawn. This was evident by the number of people that slept all the way back to the L.W.C. Defender.

All in all, spending the night with Mickey Mouse was definitely an exciting experience.

Seniors: Lowering The Anchor

The senior class worked hard during their last year to collect money for their class trip, Grad Nite, and the senior class gift.

Activities during the year included a scrumptious spaghetti dinner, a delicious soup supper, profitable car washes, and lots and lots of donut sales.

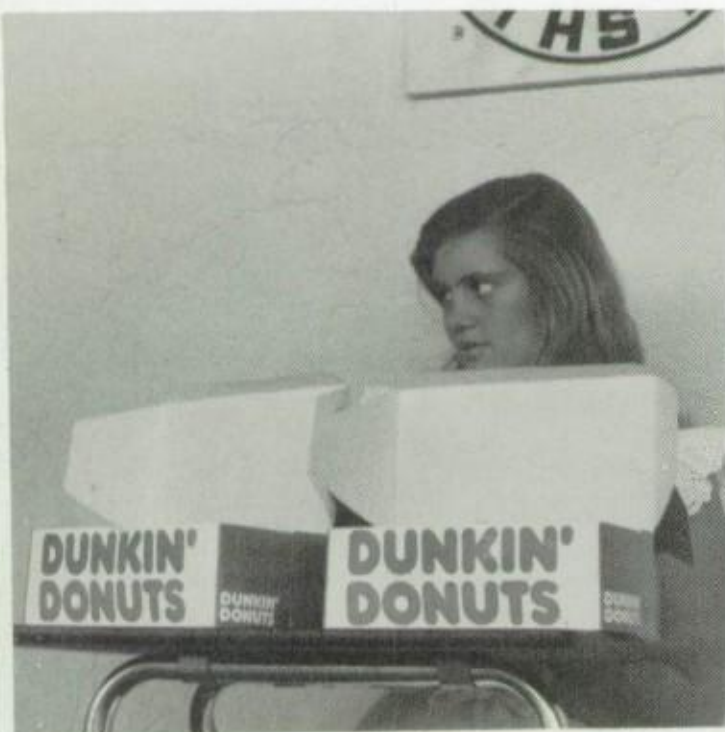

Although not 100% participated in the activities, everyone looked forward to June 7, GRADUATION!!

Class Officers: Front: Jeff Dykstra (treasurer),
Back: Mr. Van Popering (advisor), Kevin Smith (president), Shawna Book (vice-president), Mr. Welton (advisor), NOT PICTURED: Sabrina Meeker (secretary).

Mr. Van Popering's car — all washed up.

For the Class of 1983, graduation came none too soon, yet when it did come they found it a time to be remembered. Graduation was held June 7 at the Lake Worth Christian Reformed Church. The Commencement Address was given by Rev. Richard Jones. He challenged the graduates to fear sin (remember the snakes!) and too look to the Lord for guidance and strength in their lives. Special recognition was given to Salutatorian Karen Majewski and Valedictorian Sabrina Meeker. Jeff Dyskra was awarded the Ladies Guild Scholarship. A Junior Class Farewell was given in poetic verse by Chardette Fiorella, and the Senior Class Response and Presentation of Gift were given by Kevin Smith, who reminded the graduates of the many good times spent at Lake Worth Christian School.

Abandoning Ship

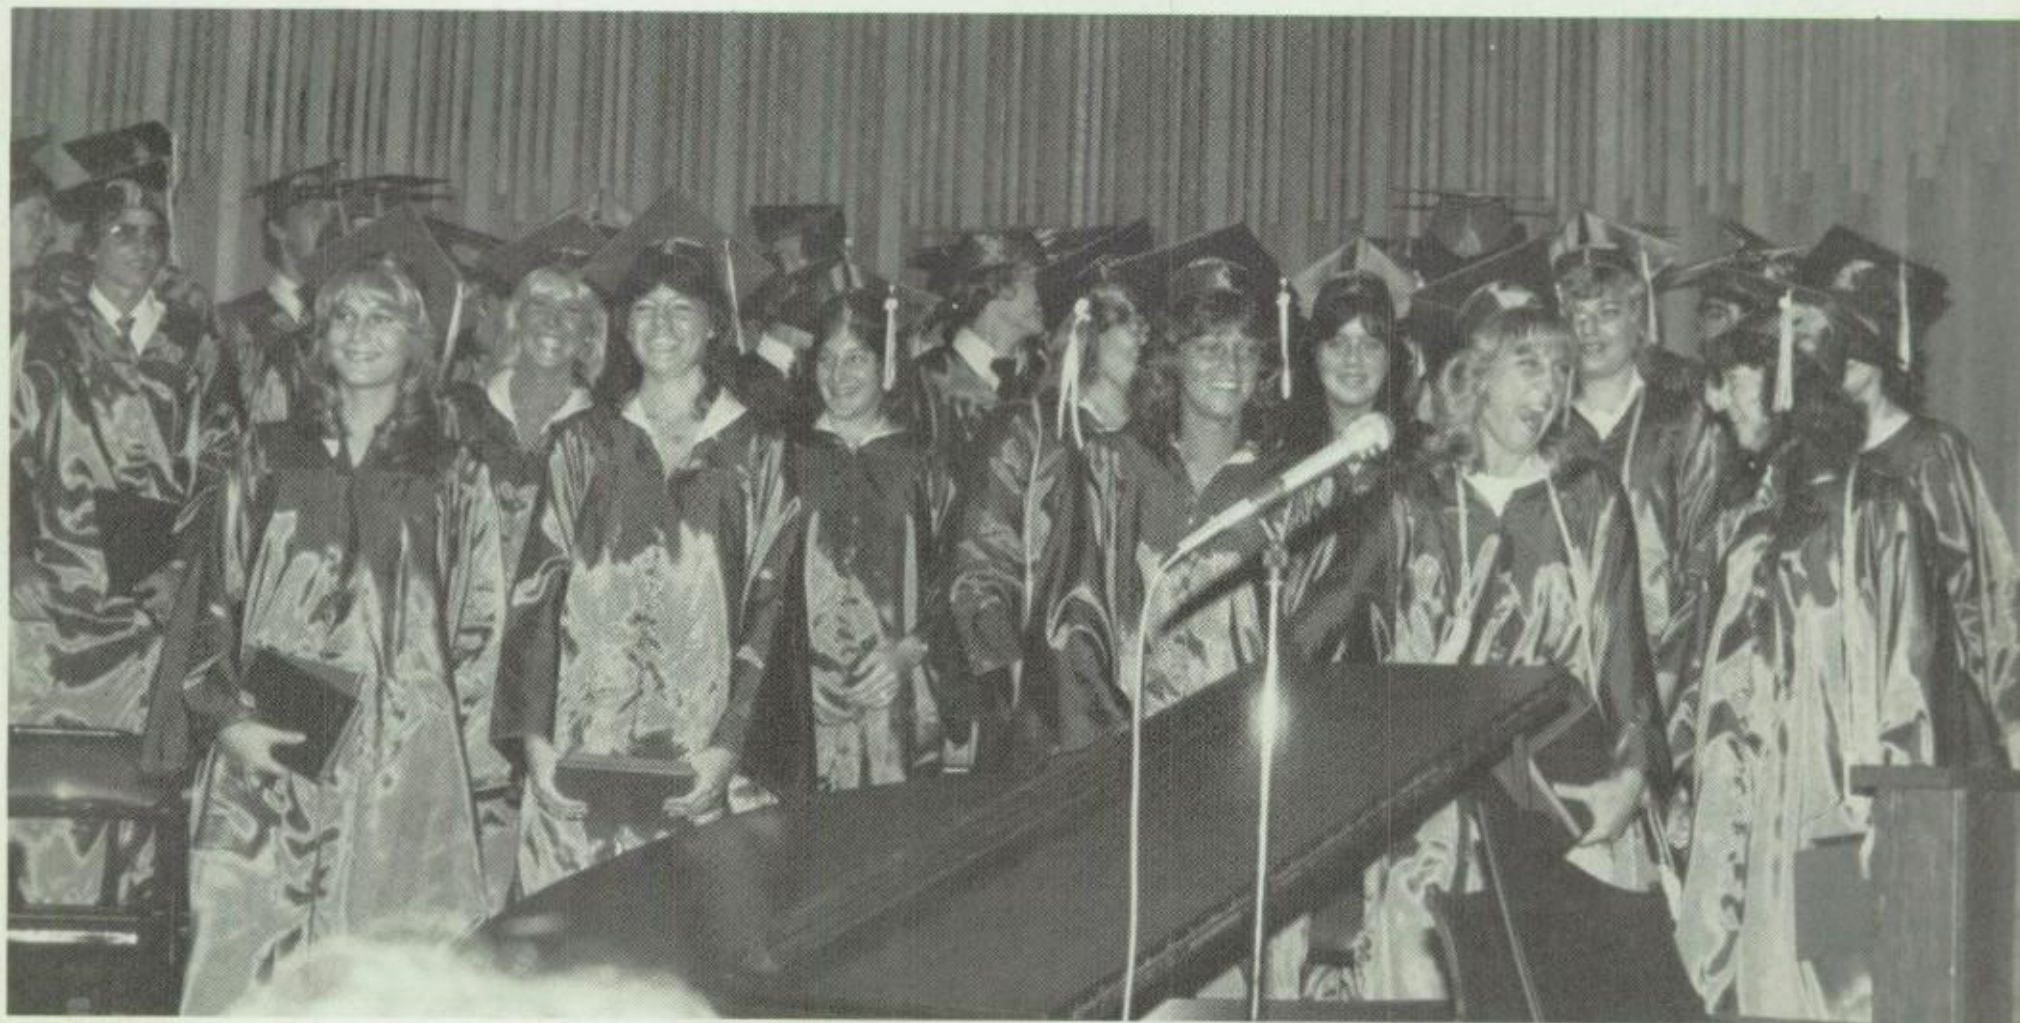

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has arisen upon you.

For behold, darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness the peoples.

But the Lord will arise upon you and His glory shall be upon you and nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your rising.

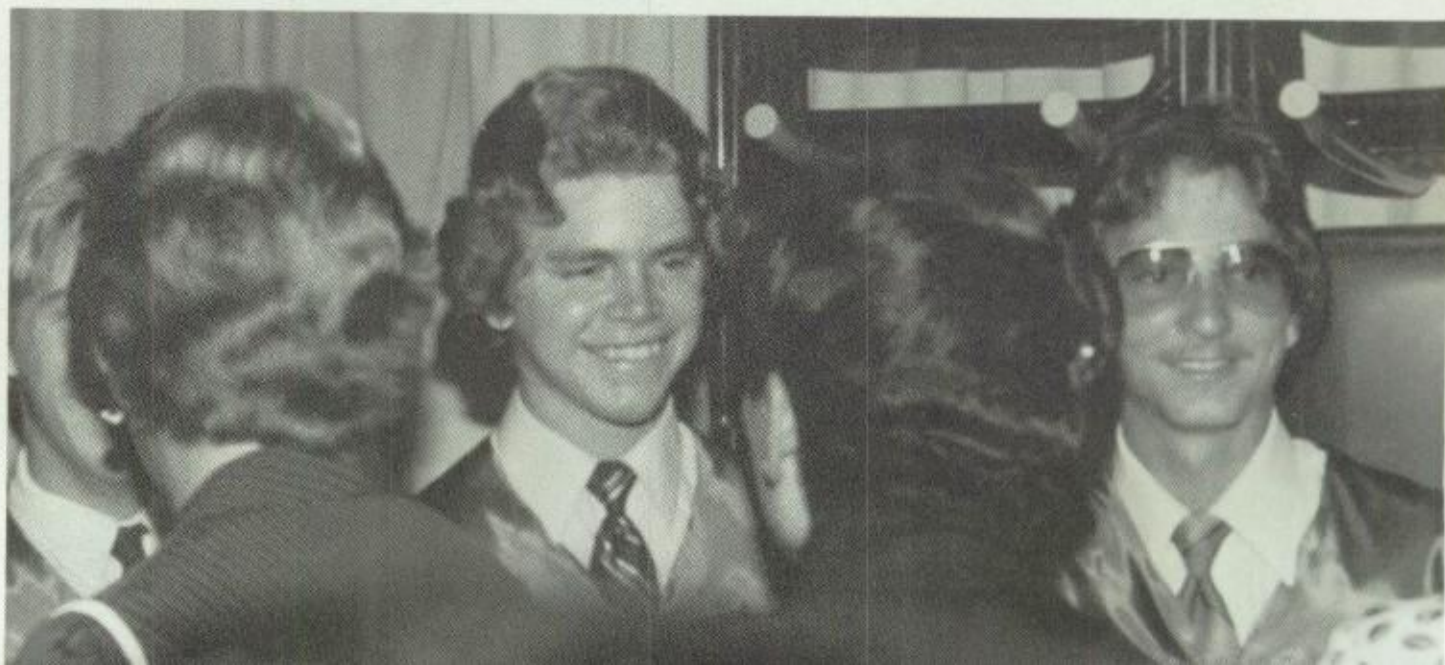

Class Verse

Isaiah 40:31

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

The corridors of the ship which once had been filled with people are now deserted. The ship has docked. Your cruise is now over.

During your trip, you've met some of the most interesting people you'll ever know. You've learned that cruises may end, but friendships don't. You've seen colorful sights no movie could ever capture. Yet your memory can embrace them all for a lifetime.

Upon your arrival, you observe that the sights of the city are the same as before.

But you've changed. You've been exposed not only to wealth of academic information, but to a variety of social events and an atmosphere of spiritual growth as well.

Indeed, you have become a more enriched person. You've "expanded your horizons" in numerous ways. Now, you are prepared and excited to meet the challenges of the future.

And that, of course, is the happiest ending of all.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

have great potential.

I think a lot of your funny is going to go into your work

but remember to save some funny
for your friends!

It is true that we've gone all the way thru School together and
you made me laugh,
giggle, and ha the whole way! I'm going to miss you when we leave but hopefully
we will see each other in New York!

Love Always,

Lisa

P.S. Remember "Good luck in all you do ya stupid
Chicken!" Love ya!

Sean,

Hey, ya giant baloney brain riding down the highway in a chicken mobile. (Wait a minnit I have to be serious first.) We've known each other since 2nd grade and we're funny. At least I think we are. It's our last year now and I'm scared. What if I never laugh again when I'm out of school. I think I should go to New York with you and stand right in front of the statue of Liberty and we both should do the locomotive. (Maybe we can even get the whole city to do the locomotive.) OK, I'm gonna be nice now, I don't want to but I'm gonna. Here it goes.... I really am glad we went to school together. I know how boring that school could get, but we made it fun. I really don't think you're dumb, I mean how many people go to college already when they're still in high school. I know that you're gonna be successful in life and make more money than Eric. (Ha Ha). Since it's our last year (oh my gosh!) I think we should make the best of it. We have to be more funny than ever. Don't use all of your funny up now, we have to save some for the Jr. S. Banquet and our Class trip to the mall. Oh well here it goes I'll try to be funny but it's hard to write it, we really have to see each other to be funny. Don't ever forget all of the funny people we knew like, Laura Ladybug, Sophia in her taxi cab, Julie Botkin the gigantic Chicken, Tyler Becky Carmichael throwing the Eraser at Miss Frenz and Jim Bell up the yellow paint in his hair + getting punched in the braces and all the crazy things me you and

~~Dear~~ Suzanne used to do, Ch yea and Kim the Virgin! I was walking down the hall and what did I see? ~~It~~ I thought it was a Tony Saba, but No. It was a pogo stick chasing after me! I jumped on a flower boy spindal, I spun some Bogus donuts around the school parking lot with Finneas brother, flew around the world a thousand times, jumped off and Saw B.U.T. I said B.U.T Help!
We flew away, he hit a telephone pole and Splat on the ground. POOR, POOR B.U.T!! Remember the google  (pg 45). Remember throwing fudge Bars & potatoe Chips in the fan. Say hello to the Typewriter for me.
Mr, you, Ernie and Miss Hefmann are going to the disco tonight to boogie down. (Bring Ray Zoo). Look on page 91, Diane and Jeff are getting ready to boogie.
Look on pag 75, Dedra did to much partying last night at the P.F.U. Look on page 52 some girl is late for a very important date. Oh, Well thats enough funny for now.

Your friend..... D
